Chillin... Anthony Rosa and Nathaniel Silva take a moment to relax. Dances were a good time to socialize out of class.

Sharing a dance... Lauren Rogers closes her eyes while in the moment. Students enjoyed bringing guests from other schools.

Just chill... Quentin Jude and his date relax to a slow dance. Occasional slow dances were a nice break to the fast tempo of school dances.

Creative work... A group of juniors work on homework during their free period. Dressing up gave students a nice break from regular dress code.

A sing along! Mrs. Dermatas helps Mary Jurgenson practice for the lip synch. The sophomores represented their class well with their beautiful voices.

Friends... Vivi Brown, Mary Montgomery, and Emily Walsh take a break from dancing to pose for a picture. Socializing was a favorite among the underclassmen.

Enjoying a moment... Katie Crabb and Ben Thornton relax during a slow dance. The mood of the night kept students dancing till the end.

What a mascot... Maria Patterson shows off the school mascot with pride. Participation during homecoming week made it the greatest one yet!

How glamorous... Joanna Akin, Caroline Freliche, and AnnaKate Kallay converse at the door. Seniors made homecoming a memorable night since it was their last one.

Go seniors! The senior boys get together to support their class at powder puff. The seniors pulled out in victories over the other classes.

Two girls and a guy... Norman Gonzales escorts Mia Samonte and Alicia Kelly to the dance. Having the dance on Saturday night gave everyone more time to socialize.

SPRING BREAK

Picture Time! Kelly and Corin spend their spring break in Sea World. Everyone should go to World to have a fun vacation.

Smile! Elyse Parker, Amanda Ritter, Ashley Leonard, and Rainey Pearson take a break from school by going to Saint Simons. Spring Break is when students can take a week off of school and have fun.

How Cute! Mary, Gray, Adrienne, and Elizabeth get ready for their night out at the beach. Students did not have to worry about getting up early the next morning.

Sing Your Heart Out!!!

Members of chorus sing during an assembly in the gym. Chorus was a great way to perform for the student body.

Shout to the Lord...

Father Brett speaks during mass on Ash Wednesday. Homilies were taken to heart.

Praise and Worship!!

Students gather in the gym to worship. This was a more relaxed way to be spiritual.

Moving On Up!

These students celebrate entering the 7th grade. This was a joyous time for these students.

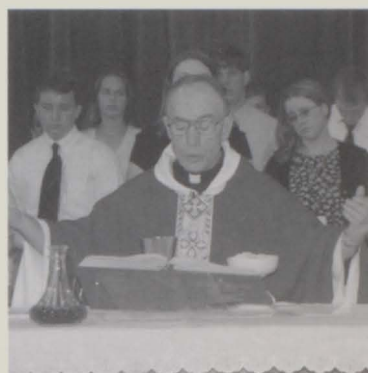

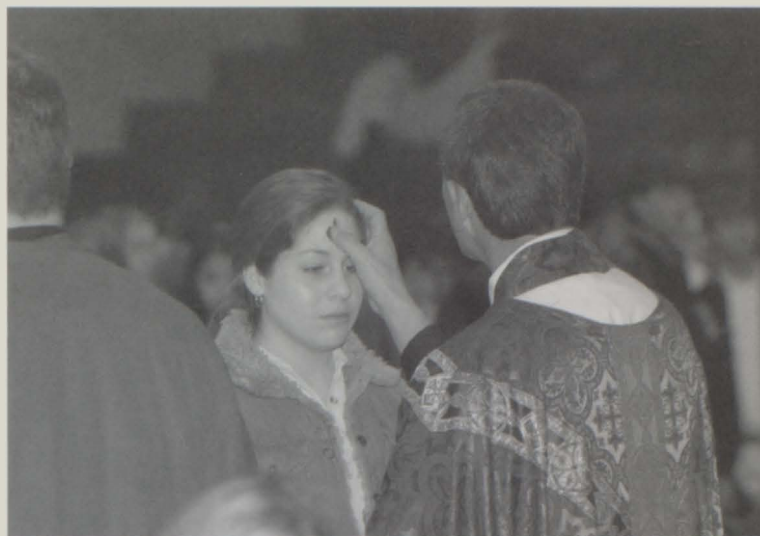

Repeat After Me...

Beth Franzoli reads the responsorial psalm. Readers at mass were always well-spoken.

Ashy...

Father Brett places a cross on the forehead of a student. Ash Wednesday was a reverent time.

The Lord Be With You!
Father Cuddy consecrates the Eucharist during mass. Father Cuddy provided spiritual guidance for many MDS students.

Serving the Lord!!
AJ Son carries the cross to the altar. It was an honor to serve at mass.

Take This Bread....
Father Cuddy presents the bread to the students during mass. Students were blessed to receive his spiritual food.

Raise the Roof!!!
Mr. Smith shows his spirit at a middle school assembly. Students enjoyed all the liveliness.

Body of Christ!
Father Brett gives the Eucharist to a student during mass on Ash Wednesday. Students prepared themselves for the season of Lent.

Let Freedom Ring!!
This student and his grandfather help celebrate Grandparents Day. It was nice to visit with our families!

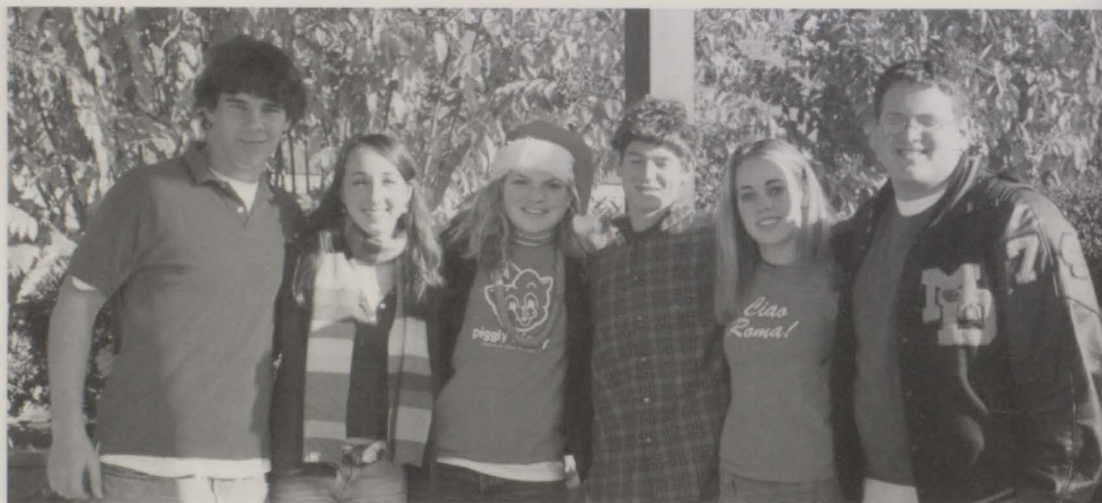

Making Spirits Bright

Santa's little helper. Anthony Rosa dresses up as an elf to show his Christmas spirit. Students enjoy costume dress down days.

Sounds of the season. Norman Gonzales plays the flute at the Christmas program. The program brought Christmas spirit to all.

Star Performers. The teach break it down at the Christmas program. It is not very often students get to see teachers dance.

Season's greetings. Juniors and seniors show their Christmas spirit. Students get excited when Christmas is near.

Away in a manger. Two middle school students stand beside a beautiful manger scene. Everyone was excited about Christmas this year.

Waiting patiently. Cassie Overman prepares to play her next piece. The band put on a great show this year.

Fly through the music. Mr. Patishnock instructs the band energetically. He is a great asset to the music department.

You better not pout. Mrs. Hatcher and two of her middle school students smile for the camera. Students develop a healthy relationship with teachers.

Silver bells. Norman Gonzales, Heather Hartley, and Chelsea Bunn concentrate on the music notes. Bells signal the arrival of Christmas.

Spreading holiday cheer. The girls' choir sings Santa Baby. Every year the choir works extra hard to liven up the assembly.

BLACK HISTORY

This is how you do it...
Many Mount de Sales students of all cultures took part in the dances.

Going back to their roots..
The performers dance for Mount de Sales students. They were a delight to all who watched.

Learning about history...
Many books have been written by celebrated authors about Black History.

Special Speaker...

Angela Manson visited the school with a speech about Mount de Sales being the first school in middle Georgia to admit black students. She was an enjoyable speaker.

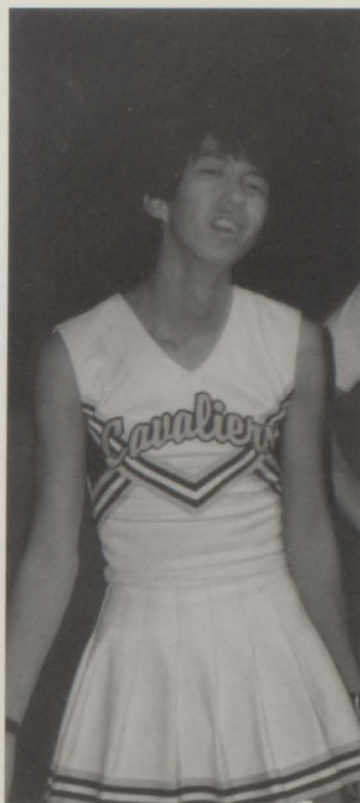

Powderpuff Football

Cheering to win! Kevin Miller leads the seniors in a cheer. Jeannine Olivier and Shannon Heenan taught the senior guys cheers for the game.

Go team go! Jeremy Pohl shows his great school spirit. The boys' enthusiasm helped the girls achieve final victory.

Touchdown! Cari Quillian runs for a touchdown to attain the lead against the sophomores. The girl's quickness aided to the team's victory.

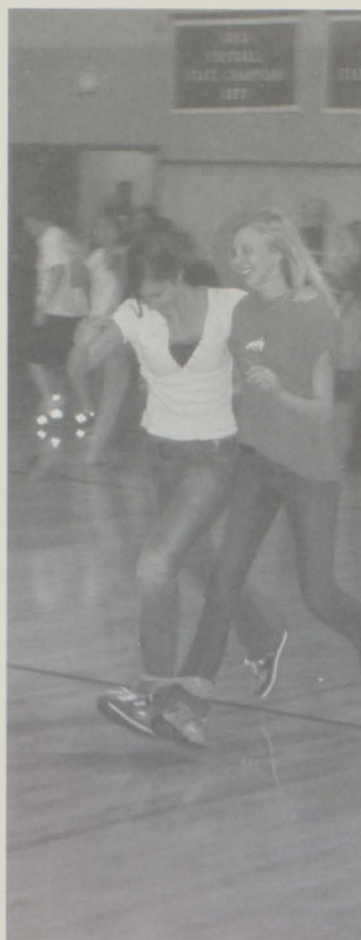

Tackle! Corrine Booth tries to make a decisive tackle against Jennifer Lidstone. The exciting game was culminated by a junior win.

A Night of Fun

Fun Night

Three legs! Joanna Akin and Mallory Jones race to the finish line. Fun night was a good way to spend a Friday night.

Taking off. Taylor Tatum runs dizzily after spinning around the bat. The night was a lot of fun, with each class showing great enthusiasm.

Pulllll harder! Seventh graders play tug-of-war with excitement. Tug-of-war was one of the more exciting games played at Fun Night.

Go boys! The sophomore boys have fun tugging at the rope. Teamwork helped the tenth grade win the competition.

Ding! Gadsden Henderson spins the bat around at the sound of go. Fun night was entertaining as well as exciting.

Balloon fun. In this relay race a student has to sit on the balloon and pop it. Teamwork is a virtue at fun night.

He's got it in the bag! William Rather gets ready to participate in the sack race. Relay races were an essential part of Fun Night.

Round and round. A middle school student has fun spinning around the bat in dizzy izzzy. The dizzy izzzy was a crazy event at Fun Night.

Practice makes perfect! The seniors practice for the pyramid contest. Students from all grades were able to participate in a variety of activities.

Get ready. Jesse Pilkenton is getting ready to place bats for dizzy izzzy. Fun Night would not have taken place if it were not for the Student Council's hard work.

Pile up! The freshmen race to be the winner in the pyramid contest. All of the grades competed in this exciting competition.

A perfect 10! Mr. Boland, Coach Dotterer and Jesse Pilkenton score the slam-dunk contest. Few could dunk a volleyball without a trampoline.

Happy Fun Day

Pay attention! Student council officers make the announcements. Students always listened carefully during announcements.

Cheer them on! Brett Sassaman and Taylor Ware watch the kickball game. The grades competed to determine a winner.

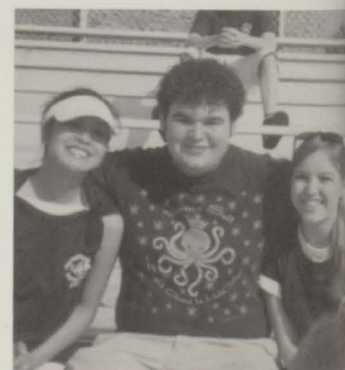

Smile! A group of juniors girls pose for a picture. Friends are never too busy for pictures.

Just hangin' out... Brett Sassaman and David Bartlet hang out with their friends. They enjoyed each other's company.

Music, music... Amanda Kendrick listens to her walkman. Happy fun day was a very relaxed day.

Joke of the day! Colleen Hickey entertains her friends. Friends enjoyed laughing together.

Get ready! Seniors group together and discuss their plans for the day. They planned to bond as a grade.

Take off! Junior students fill their rocket with water and prepare for take off. The day was full of fun-filled activities.

Fly, rocket fly! Mark Misinco gets ready to make his rocket fly. Students enjoyed goofing off on Happy Fun Day.

Don't get wet! A. J. Son pours water into the big rocket. Students took advantage of a day off from class.

I'm here! Ms. Talcott and Mr. Massey take role. Happy Fun Day was a required day of school that no one wanted to miss.

Making of Prom

Working Hard

Nicole Moore, Wendy Walker, Colleen Hickey, Stephanie Nelson, and Brittany Hudson work together. All their hard work paid off!!!

Carrying The Load!!!

Mark Misinco carries a trellis to the prom stage. Most juniors had to wake up early to help with prom.

Packing It Up...

Jimmy Cassidy moves around a few boxes. Most of the prom supplies were stored in Rose Place.

Get Your Motor Running!!

Mr. Massey helps to load a few trellises. All the trucks were a big help.

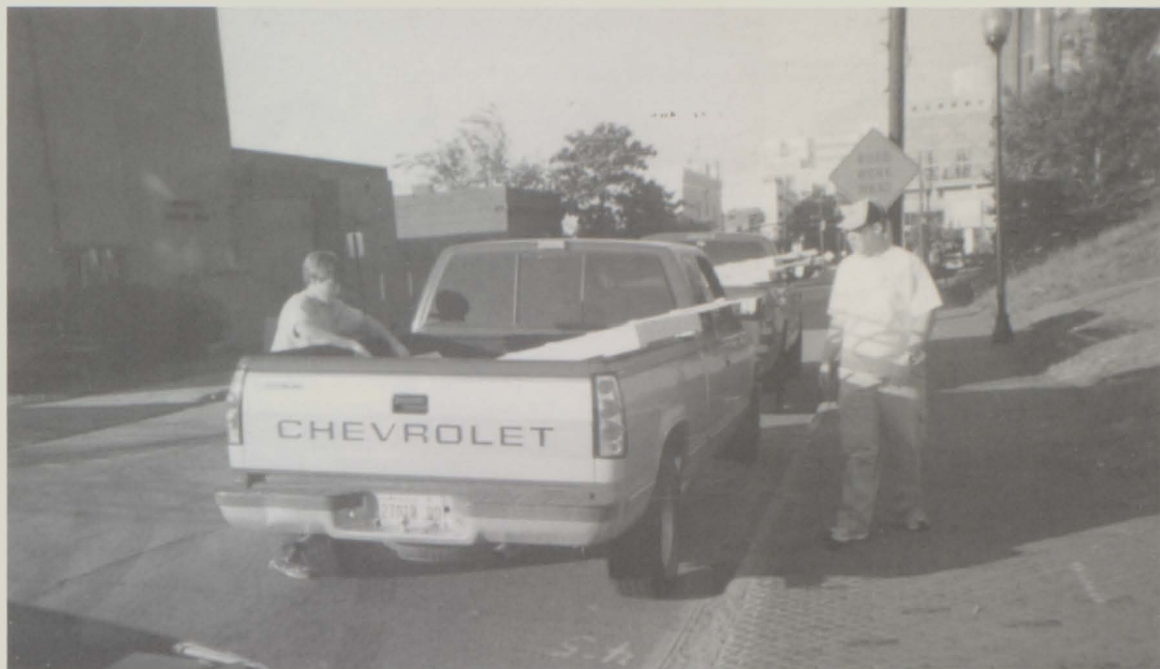

Keep On Truckin!!!

Jimmy Cassidy and David Bartlett get ready to unload supplies. All the trucks helped to get the job done.

Get it Done!!!

Ms. Hutto directs the juniors in what to use for prom. We would have been in sad shape without our moderators.

Can I Get A Little Help???

Alison Lizek carries a column out of Ms. Hutto's room. It looks like she needed a little help carrying that!

Heavy Lifting...

David Bartlett stacks the boxes sky high. It turns out Alison wasn't the only one who needed help.

Prom 2004

Wall Flowers

Seniors rest their feet. It was nice to take a break after all the dancing.

Gettin' Loose!!!

Sade` Bentley and her date Nashan Bigham hit it off on the dance floor. Prom was a big success.

Picture Perfect!!!

Senior Jeremy Pohl and his date Cathy Atienza pose for leadout. This was a special senior moment.

C-Walkin'...

Andrew Durr busts a move on the dance floor. Not all the guys were as outgoing as Andrew.

Follow the Leader.....

President Adam Fyke and his First Lady Laura Stanford make waves at the prom. It was nerve racking to be the first in leadout.

Kodak Moment!!!

Carl Puckett and his date Barbara Jane Harville pose for leadout. What a lucky guy Carl was.

The Great Escape....

Prom goes leave the dance at 11. You couldn't be late to all the parties.

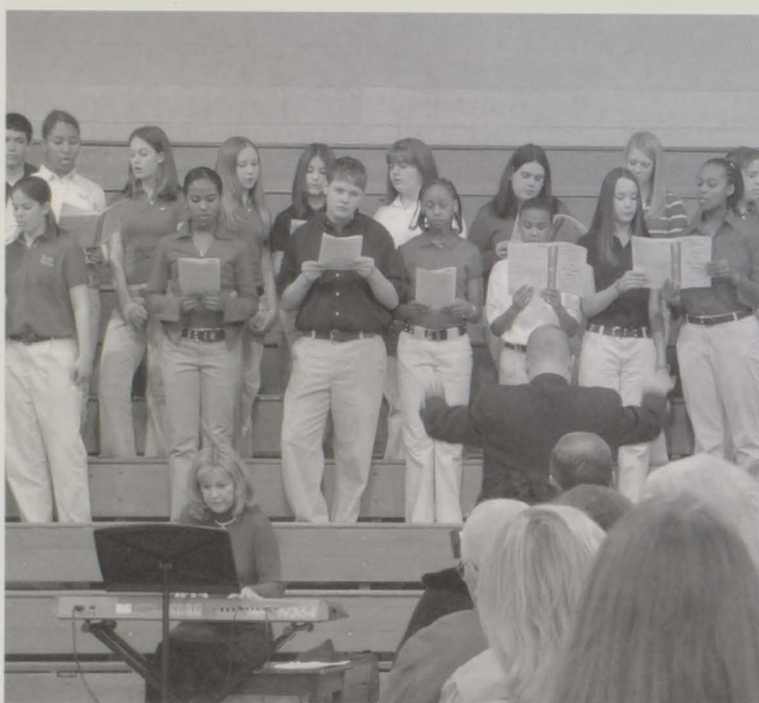

GRANDPARENTS

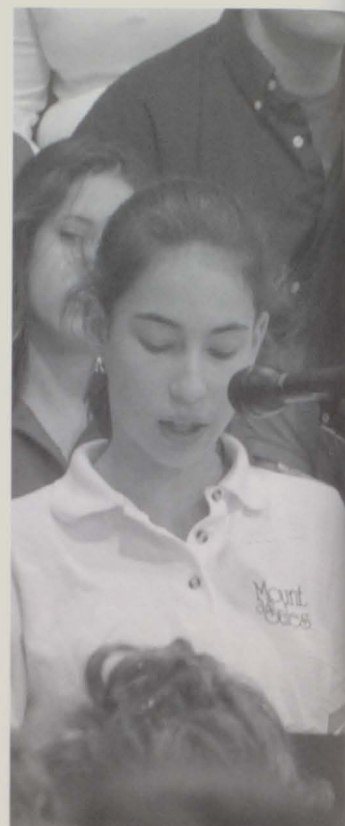

Here they are... Middle school students are proudly pictured with their grandparents. Students were happy to stand up and be seen with their grandparents.

Thank You... Kaitlin Westfall gives a speech showing her appreciation for grandparents. Thanks was something all the grandparents were happy to hear.

Sing Along! The kids sing a song showing their affection for their grandparents. Any attempt possible was made to make the older family members feel good.

We appreciate you! Ms. Prebble thanks the grandparents for their love and support of their grandchildren. Grandparents were recognized for their great influence on the children.

Hey look at me! This kid wants to let everybody know that he is the hula hoop king. The students were always quick to show off their best talents.

Hey there... The two ladies made sure to say hello to all their friends. Being friendly and showing good character was noticable through the day.

Hang tight... The students take a break during the day for lunch. Getting to be around your friends must have been the best part about the whole day.

Check me out... Brandon Monroe, the fearless leader, poses with his team. Senior leadership was seen all through the school year.

Time to Talk!!!

Conner Bunn sits among friends and chats. Break period was a fun time to relax.

Nap Time!!

This student chose to catch up on some overdue sleep. Students learned not to take sleep for granted.

Study Hall!!

These students are hard at work in study hall. Study hall was usually more effective at getting work done than free period.

Chow Down!

These students use some free time to grab a bite to eat. We loved the free time this year.

Hard at Work!!

Delwyn Andrews works in study hall. Students found study hall less desirable than free period.

Life's A Breeze!!

Adam Barroso and Patrick Allen enjoy their lunch period. Lunch was used for more than just chowing down.

Lunch Break!!!

Michael Conforti sits at a lunch table during his lunch period. Students enjoyed school lunches.

Cool Dude!!

Jimmy Smith sits on the bench at lunch. Some students preferred to sit outside on their lunch period.

Study Study Study!!

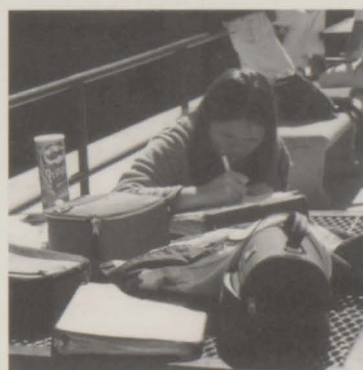

Taylor Ware, David Bartlett, and Brianna Rupe study in the library during free period. Free periods were a help!

Book Work!!!

Tommy Hurley looks over some notes in the library. The library was usually the best place to study.

Surfin The 'Net!

Josh Rowland and Erin Lewis work on the computers. This was a good time to do research.

Break Time!!!

Kacey Price studies during her free period. Most students used this time to finish up homework.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

Awesome Service... MDS students are vital in organizing and carrying out the Catholic Schools Week Assembly. It was important for our students to come together during this week.

How thoughtful! Students award Father Cuddy with a cake to show their admiration for him. This week Mt. de Sales showed much appreciation for the Catholic Church.

And the Winner Is... Frank Perez was crowned champion of the tournament. This game requires technique, but you can also be lucky. This championship was fun for everyone, including the fans.

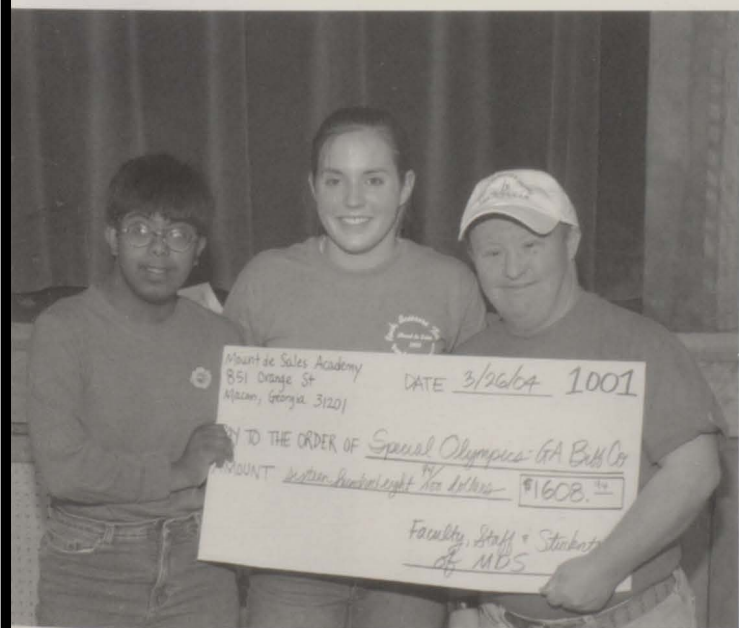

P a p e r R o c k S c i s s o r s

Shoot... Carl Puckett and David Garrofolo battle it out to see who the winner will be. This event gave the students a break from class, but it also helped them support the Special Olympics.

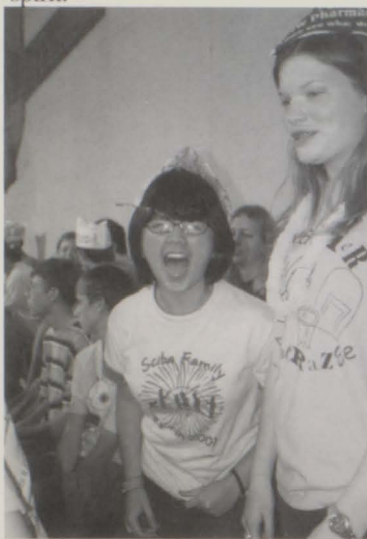

The Gift of Giving... Bethany Dadisman presented a check to a grateful recipient from the Special Olympics. Students always make sure to donate their money for a good cause.

Put Some Pep In Your Step!

Are you ready? These girls take a moment before going back into the crowd of fans and students. MDS school spirit could be seen everywhere during games.

Ahhhh! Pep rallies can be a great time to relieve frustration from a long, hard day. Students tried to be the loudest in order to prove their class had the most school spirit.

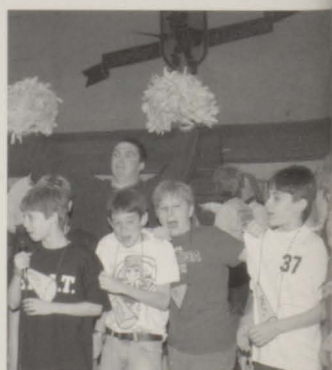

Picture Perfect. This group of sophomore girls pose for the camera at a football game. Students enjoy dressing up and decorating themselves to show school spirit.

Go Cavs! Coach Slocum says a few encouraging words to get everyone pumped up. Even the faculty enjoyed participating in school pep rallies.

Those aren't cheerleaders! These boys participate in an amusing game of leap frog. Students would go to any length to show off their school spirit.

Lets get a little bit rowdy! Mr. Smith shows his school spirit with the cheerleaders. The C-Team cheerleaders did their best to get the students pumped up.

Do I look fat? These sophomore boys show their school spirit in a very unusual way. The guys were surprised to find out how it feels to be a real cheerleader.

Giddy Up! Maria Patterson enjoys showing off her school spirit at a home football game. MDS was the only school to have an actual school mascot present at games.

Raw Raw! Coach Kemp looks like he is having more fun than the students. Pep rallies were a great way to get everyone excited before a big game.

Go Cavs! Betsy Poe and Ashley Dempsey show off their school spirit tank tops. Students encouraged fans in the crowd to join in the fun of Cavalier school spirit.

Get Set. Go! These students are competing in a game during a pep rally. Pep rallies were a great time for students and faculty to interact with each other.

It's hot! The bonfire is an exciting event to which everyone looks forward. These senior boys and cheerleaders were determined to show that they had the most school spirit.

VOLUNTEERING

Tell'em about it... Katie Garafalo gives a speech about the important role students have with their community service. Student leadership and encouragement was great motivation.

Putting it together... Chloe Spicer and Lacey Young help build a house. Students' involvement with their community was shown in many ways.

Working hard... A group of kids painted park benches during class retreat. Students didn't mind helping make the community look better.

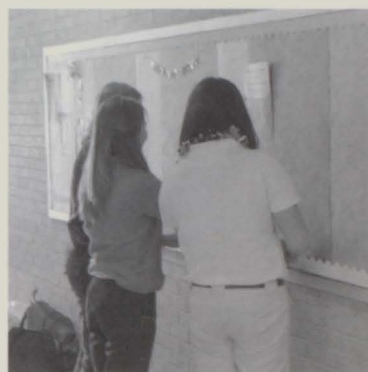

Getting the job done... A handful of students take a break from their hard work. Working with friends always made the work more fun.

Don't work too hard... A few students trim tree limbs around town. Students helped do whatever could be done to make a difference around the neighborhood.

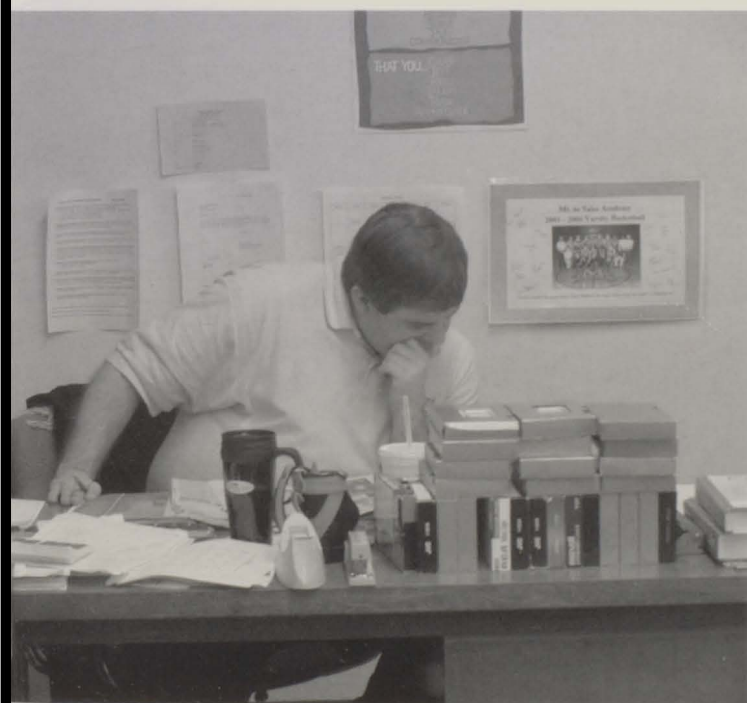

Show em' some support.... The cheerleaders show support to the participating runners for race for the cure. Encouragement was something welcomed from all who would volunteer.

Let everybody know! A few students post volunteer opportunities on a bulletin board. There were always plenty of chances for students to help out around the community.

Just standing around... Charlie Cassidy waits around before Race for the Cure. Students involvement in this activity was a great way to support the community.

How about some guidance... A student asks Mr. Boland for instructions on her volunteer project. Mr. Boland was always helping with projects around the community.

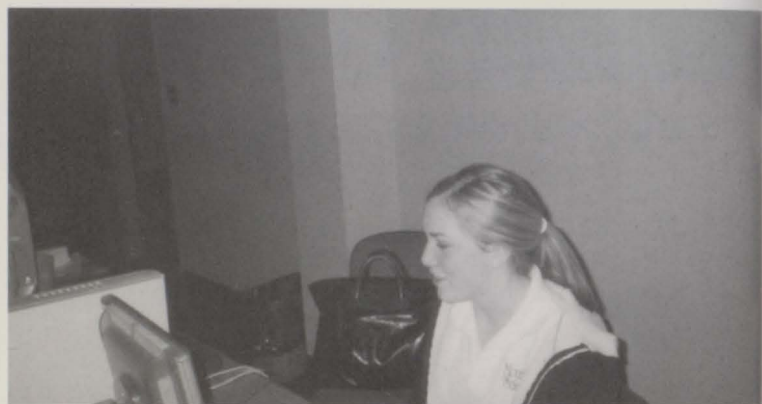

The man with the plan... Mr. Boland looks over some service hour business in his office. He always made sure things were straight with students volunteer work.

Group help... The Key Club helps with a local project. This club helped with a lot of volunteer organizations around town.

Listen up! Joey Shackelford gives his fellow student Jacob Adams some help with his work. Students were always willing to help each other with their lessons.

Superlatives

Homecoming Court

A Prince's Smile. Brandon Monroe is unable to hold back his smile from joy. The Homecoming King was an honorable position wanted by all.

Her Highness. Bethany Dadisman shows off her sparkling tiara. Kings and queens were presented with crowns and tiaras.

A Princess in Waiting... Bethany Dadisman is decked out in her princess outfit. Homecoming candidates wore their costumes all week.

Game Time. Kenny Epps and Brandon Monroe watch the football game intently. The Homecoming King and Queen were announced at half-time.

Candidate Conversation. The candidates enjoy themselves as they wait for the announcement of the king and queen. There was much tension in the air.

Victory Dance. Brandon Monroe and Bethany Dadisman share a victory dance. The King and Queen always danced together at the Homecoming Dance.

Team Support. Brandon Monroe's victory was a win for all. Guys showed support for their classmates off the field and outside the classroom.

On Our Honor. David Bushey and Clinton Johnson are proud to be chosen by their classmates to be Honor Guards. This position was respected by everyone.

King at Last. Brandon Monroe is proud to be crowned king. Royal parents were proud of their children's accomplishments.

We're All Princesses. (l-r) Joanna Akin, Candice DuPree, Caroline Freliche, Bethany Dadisman, Leslie Jerkins, and Meghan Slonaker.

Moving on Up!

A blessing... Monsignor Cuddy blesses Adam Fyke, the president of the student body. Senior leadership was always present during the school year.

Follow my lead... Carolin Freliche leads the student body during a song. Senior participated in many activities, including chorus.

Peace be with YOU... Marilyn Sawyer and Jayce Simpson shake hands with each other. Friendship was a major theme of the Moving Up ceremony.

Virtuoso... Norman Gonzales plays the flute during a serious moment of the ceremony. Senior class was full of different talents this year.

Candlelight

A fellowship of friends... A group of senior girls stop for a quick picture. The reception, following the service, was a nice way to end the evening.

Marching down the aisle... Sam McLaurin and Kenneth Suchower lead the acolytes to the altar. The acolytes led the seniors into the church.

Let's hear it! The chorus ensemble perform during the service. The chorus contributed to the ambiance of the service

Let's eat.... Patrick Hanson and Kenny Epps have a snack after the service. The afterglow was a good time for the students to fellowship with each other.

Senior Honors

What an artist! Nigel Esser earns recognition for his outstanding performance in art. He participated in many MDS art shows.

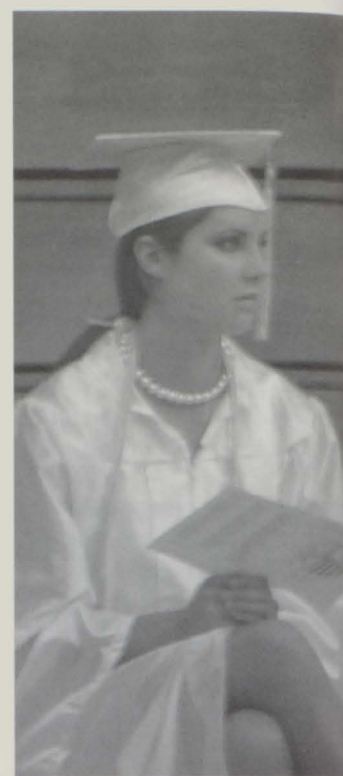

Congratulations! Katie Garafalo receives recognition for her success. Her hardwork and dedication earned her an award.

Our last day! Seniors receive their awards. They anxiously awaited the end of the ceremony because it signified the end of their high school careers.

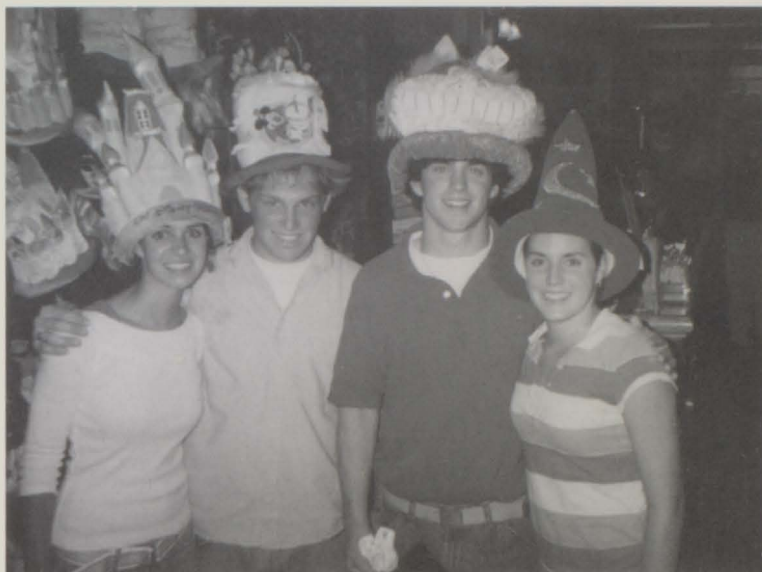

Thank you! Joana Akin listens as her fellow seniors are honored. This assembly was a time to appreciate the seniors

Senior Trip!

Its a magical world! Leslie Jerkins, Quenton Bishop, Nathan Masters, and Bethany Dadisman try on magical hats. They realized you are never to old to play.

Smile! Chase Henderson and Jesse Pilkenton enjoy each other's company on their senior trip. Seniors took the opportunity to hang out with their friends.

Say what? Katie Wright, Josh Rowland, Kara Williams, and Adam Fyke gather together to have a chat. Friends loved talking to each other.

Havin' fun! Christine Relton, Temia Leslie, and Katherine Mann spend time together on their last overnight trip before they are graduated. Friends didn't take each other's company for granted.

Baccalaureate

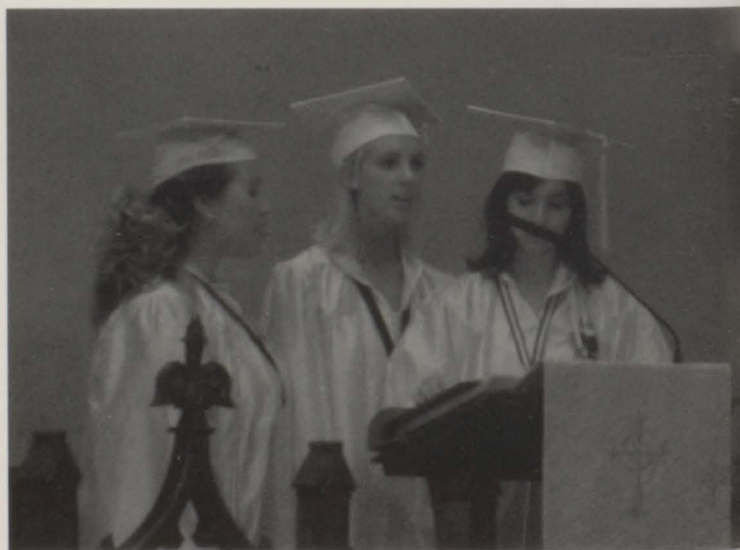

Grand Finale! Senior members of the Mount de Sales ensemble fill the sanctuary with their glorious voices for one last time. They were a delight to all who heard them.

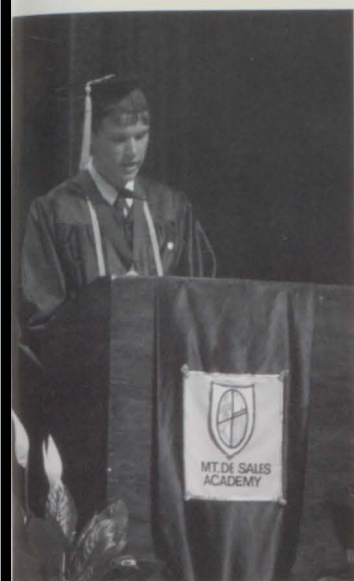

Smile! A group of senior boys pose for a quick picture after the mass. The seniors were one step closer to being graduated.

Here we go! The seniors get ready to proceed into Mulberry United Methodist Church. Seniors were expected to demonstrate excellent behavior during the service.

A song of praise. Cara Whitley, Mallory Jones, and Winslow Rumph sing a sacred melody. Their beautiful voices made the service even more enjoyable.

Graduation

Valedictorian. Corey Evans gives his speech as the valedictorian as the 2004 senior class. He worked very hard to attain this distinguished honor.

Congratulations. Salutorian Ryan Evans accepts her prestigious award from Mrs. Prebble. This honor is not easy to attain.

Music to our ears. The senior chorus members delight the audience with their great voices. The senior members of the chorus will be missed.

Sisters of Mercy Award. David Bushy receives the Sisters of Mercy Award. This award is only given to one student in the senior class.

It's Awesome Baby!

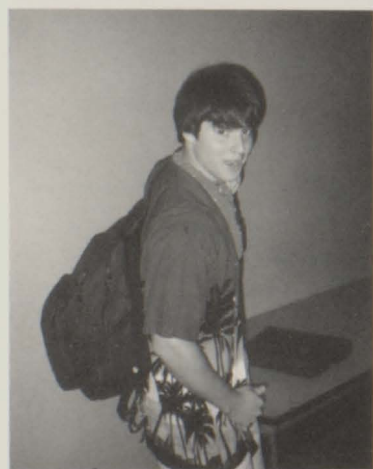

Seniors Gone Wild

Yummy! Allison Ducote and Caroline Freliche enjoy breakfast in homeroom. The teachers provided doughnuts and juice for the seniors on pj day.

Share the love... Brandon Monroe and Ashley Leonard enjoy being able to wear pajama's all day. Dressing down was a gift given to the seniors all week.

All I need is a surfboard... Kenneth Suchower strikes a pose on Hawaiian Day. Seniors got a chance to wear luau clothes and have a cookout for lunch.

SNAP! Eric Roberts gives his suspenders a tug to tighten them. Tacky Day was a great day to show off eccentric clothing from different closets.

Thugs for life... George Johnston and Brandon Monroe strike a pose in the gym for Twin Day. Creative outfits were a must to match other people.

Hold Me! Adam Romine gives Leslie Jerkins a lift to their next class. Friends were always around when you needed them the most.

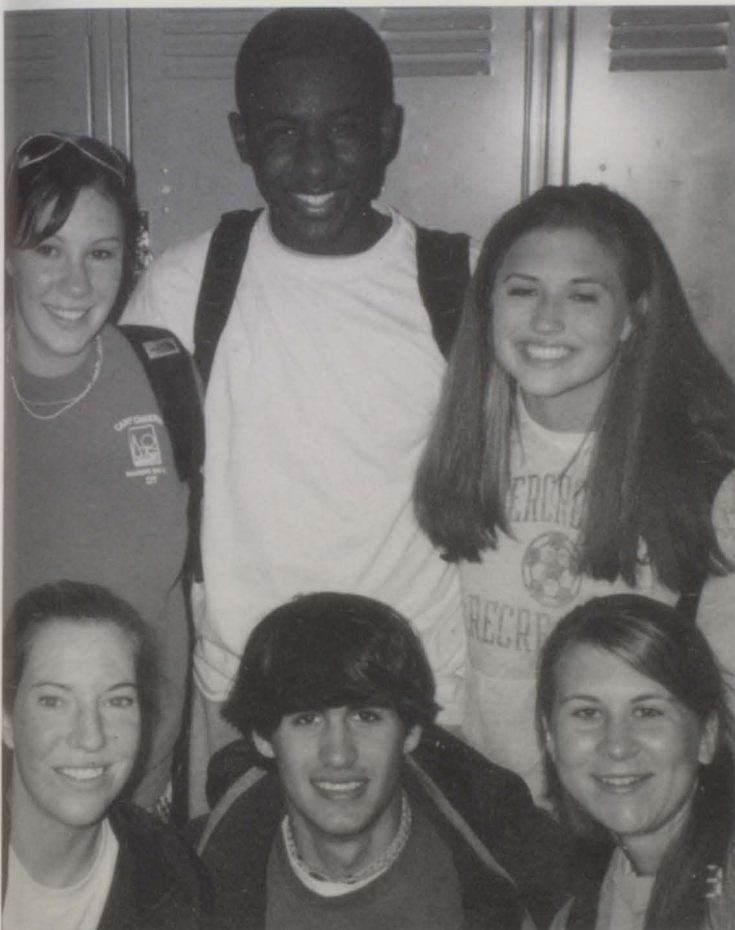

Look at my earrings! Blair Slocum takes a break during a challenging class. The chance to dress up gave the seniors a nice break from the regular routine.

Another Day Gone... Bryan Benton and Meaghan Slonaker pack their bags to end the day. Senior Week was a lot of fun but also exhausting for the seniors.

Look at us! Ashleigh George and Bill Rather wrap up the day by wrapping up the flag. Tackiness did not stop every-day activities from happening.

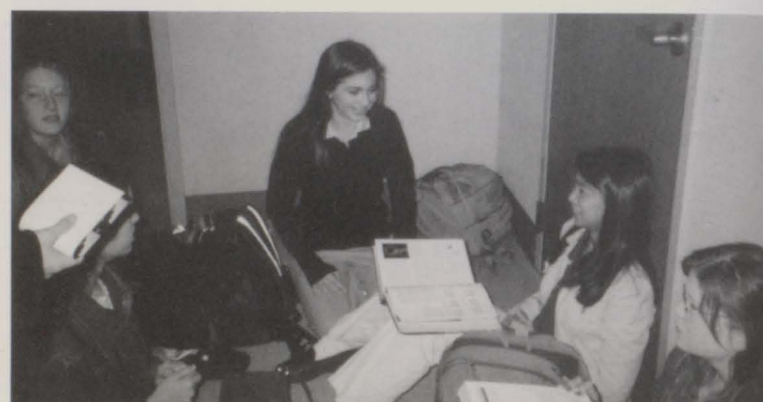

One big happy family! This group of seniors join together for a quick picture. Senior Week was the perfect time for a photo opportunity.

The Gemini Triplets... Ashley Leonard, Amanda Ritter, and Lauren Westfall sport shirts with the word Gemini. Twin Day was a great day to find people with similar interests.

Academics

English

Sophomore Emily Wyche reads from her literature book in order to be prepared for the quiz the next day. The students did very good jobs staying on task and not sleeping in their classes.

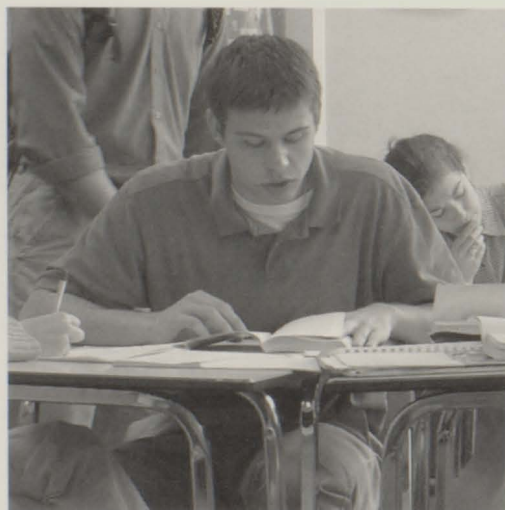

Senior Mallory Jones looks intrigued by the book she must read for her English class. The senior class has matured greatly through their years at MDS.

Senior Joseph Keifer gets a head start on his homework. The students enjoyed their free period and worked hard to keep them.

A group of seniors works hard to finish one of Mr. Downs' in-class projects. They all had to do a fair share of the work when it came to group assignments.

Senior Eric Goolesby looks for the answer to a tough question in order to help his group finish their work. The senior class was given a good number of projects in order to raise their already outstanding grades.

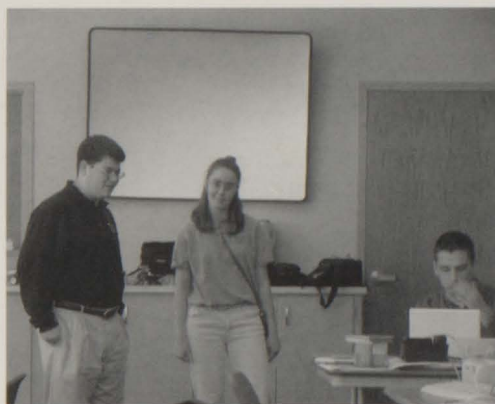

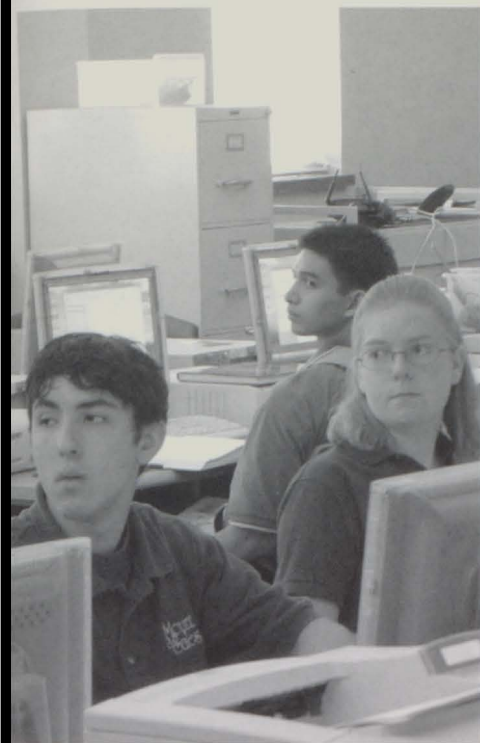

Junior Vivi Brown is concentrating on not forgetting what she studied the previous night. The tests prepared the juniors for the next level of high school.

get it! These students listen attentively during computer class. Students were disappointed to find out computer class was not about email and chat rooms.

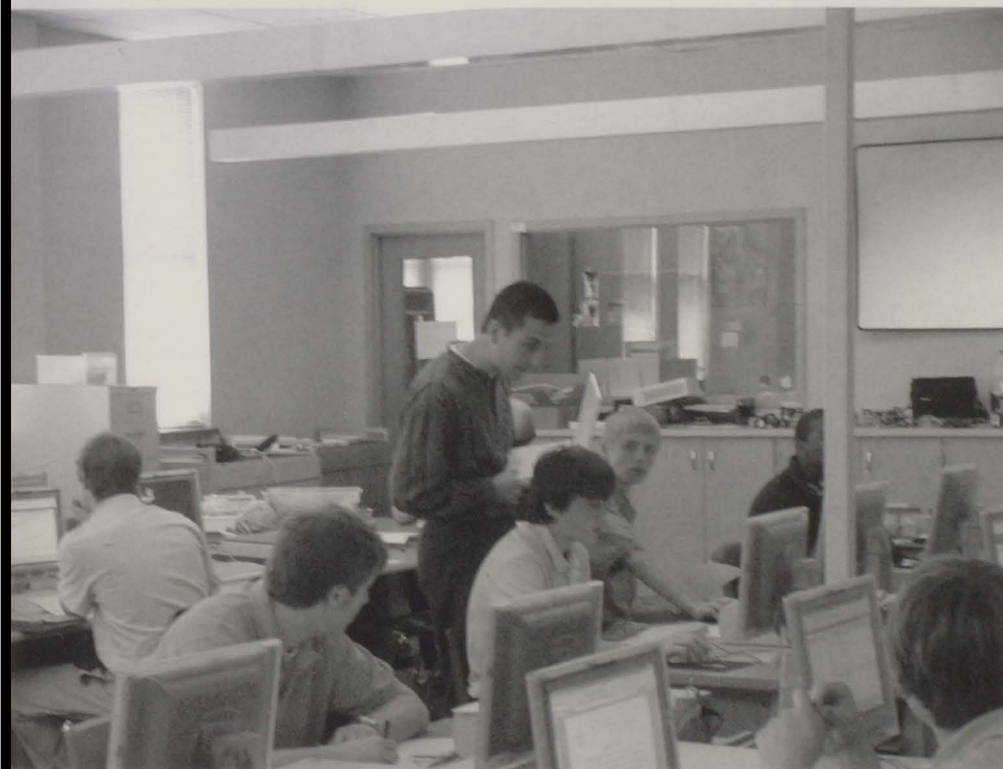

Cyber-School

Listen Up! Mrs. Timms takes a moment to make sure everyone gets the notes off the board. Listening and following directions was essential in computer class.

I should have taken typing. Katie Beall works diligently during computer class. Mr. Vela and Mrs. Timms made sure their students had plenty of work to do.

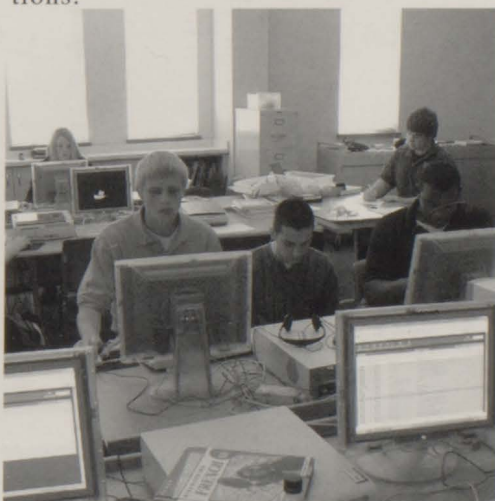

Presentation Time! Amanda Kendrick and David Krapf show the class how it's done. Mr. Vela enjoyed listening to his students interesting presentations.

That's right! Mr. Vela assists these boys while Brandon Harris watches from his computer. Some students realized that computers aren't as simple as they thought.

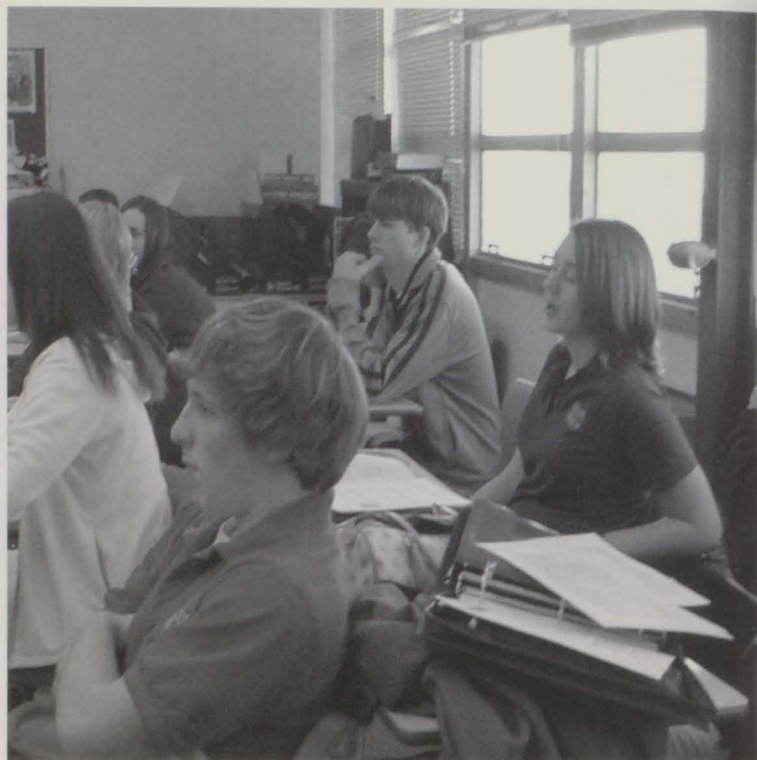

Help Please! Nathan Bier calls on Mr. Vela for a little assistance. Mr. Vela was always willing to help any student in need of his great knowledge of computers.

History

Geography lesson! Mrs. Castonguay teaches her geography class. Students were well prepared when they entered high school.

Listen carefully... Tyler Thompson sits back to enjoy the lecture. Everyone loved learning new and interesting facts during history class.

Peace! Bryan Benton takes time out of class to pose for the camera. Students needed to take breaks during the hard day.

Listen up! Mrs. Heacox gives instructions for the day's assignments. Students always paid attention during class.

Project time! Kevin Miller and Sam McLaurin discuss a project. Students always worked together to do their best.

Science

Test Time! These chemistry students try to stay focused during one of Mrs. Yeoman's challenging tests. The students always tried to do their best.

Saved by the bell! Students rush to the nearest exit when they hear the bell ring. Students anticipated hearing the bell.

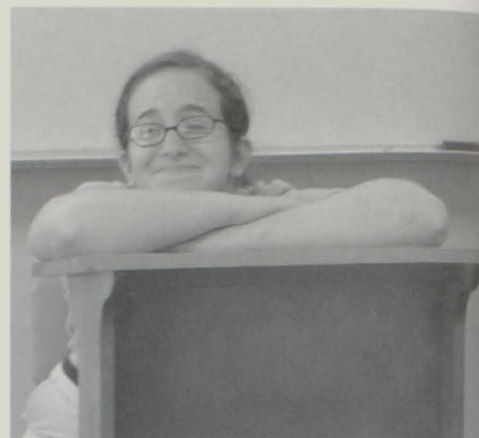

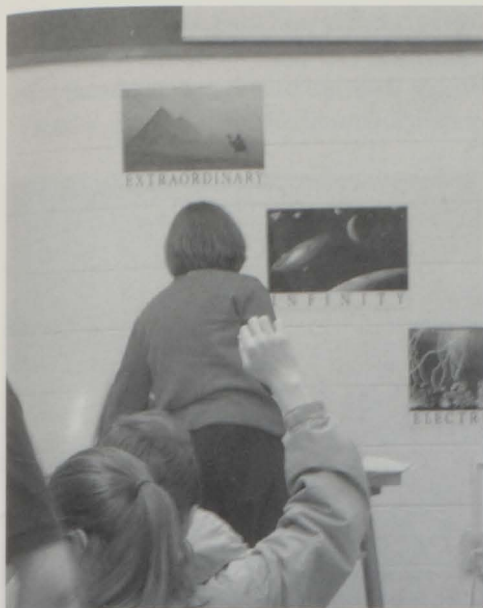

Listen up class! Mrs. Castonguay fills in for a fellow teacher during the day. She always helped students and teachers alike with their difficulties.

Teamwork... Keith Manley helps his fellow students solve problems by using hand signals. Students often looked to friends for advice.

Okay class... Jessica Koplin plays the role of the teacher during science class. Students rarely got the opportunity to take the role as the teacher.

Ahem! A student in Mrs. Mixon's science class tries to get her attention. Asking questions was a good way to make sure the assignments were done accurately.

What a score!!! Sam McLaurin takes a look at his latest physics test. Students were happy to see all their hard work reflected in their weekly grades.

A much needed break! Cassandra Coronel takes a few seconds at the end of class to rest. These breaks gave students a chance to get refreshed between their classes.

What did you get? Stephen Fondal looks at Sam McLaurin's paper to compare his grade. Students always liked to see how they measured up to their peers.

Workin' hard! Ashley Dempsey and Burney Pollock concentrate on their work. Free time afforded students the opportunity to finish their homework while still in class.

Playing games... Wesley Moulton and Brandon Mahoney take a break from their work to play a calculator game. Calculators were used for fun as well as for solving problems in science class.

Viva La France!

It is a tricycle! Nathan Bier gets ready for his leg of the French marathon. This Saturday activity was a bonus for the French students this year.

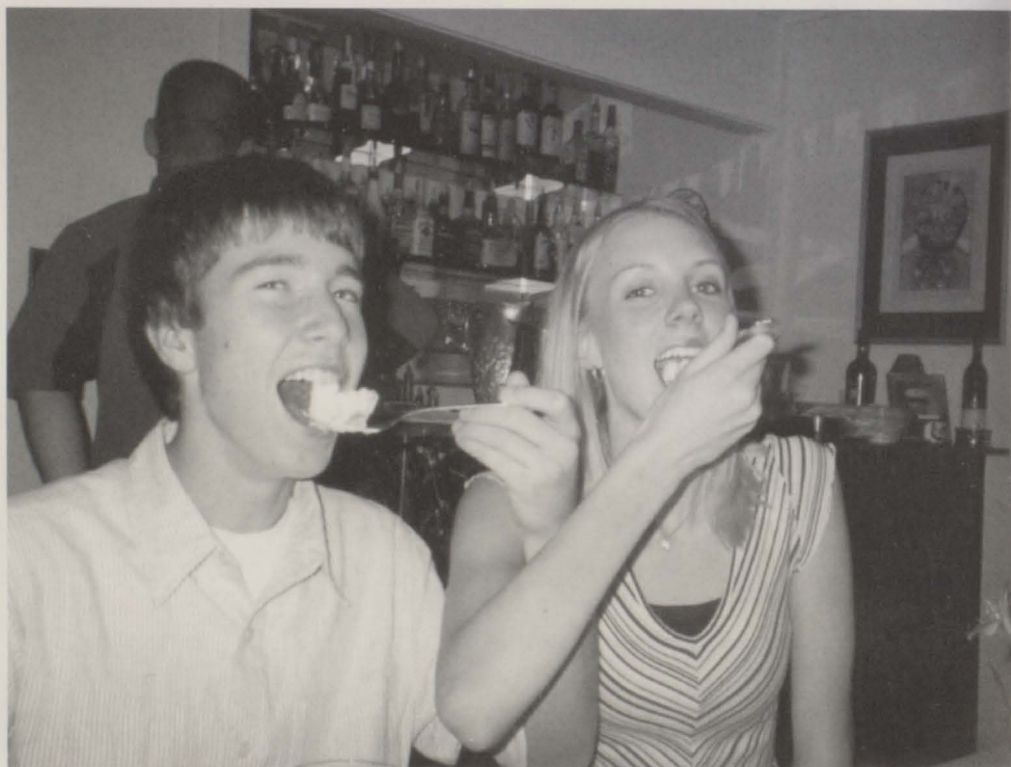

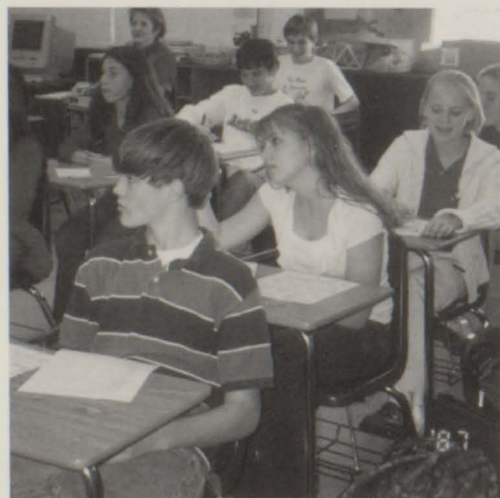

Smile big! Lindsey Sheppard, Myredith Gonzales, and Katie Davis take a break during French class. Free time during Mrs. Haddix's class was always a rare thing.

Mmm, good! Mrs. Haddix prepares some snacks for her students on the last day of French week. Food was not usually allowed in the classroom, so having it was a bonus.

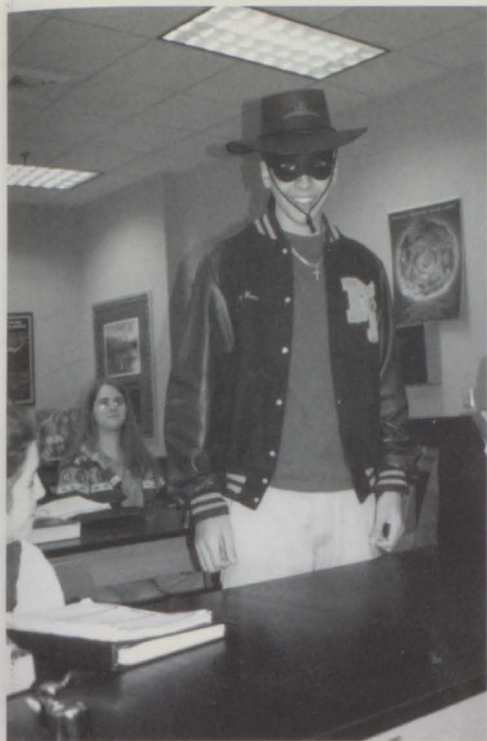

"And the word for poem is..." French students give their oral reports on a poem they had to learn. Memorization is never easy, especially in another language!

A new experience. Eighth graders listen attentively in class as they go over some homework. This year, foreign language was added to the middle school curriculum.

Chowing down! Mallory Jones and Jimmy Cassidy share some food at the Back Burner. French week was a great opportunity for students to experience a different culture.

The Mask of Zorro. Anthony Rosa models his costume for dress-up day. Spanish week was a time for learning about other cultures, specifically, the cultures of Spanish-speaking countries.

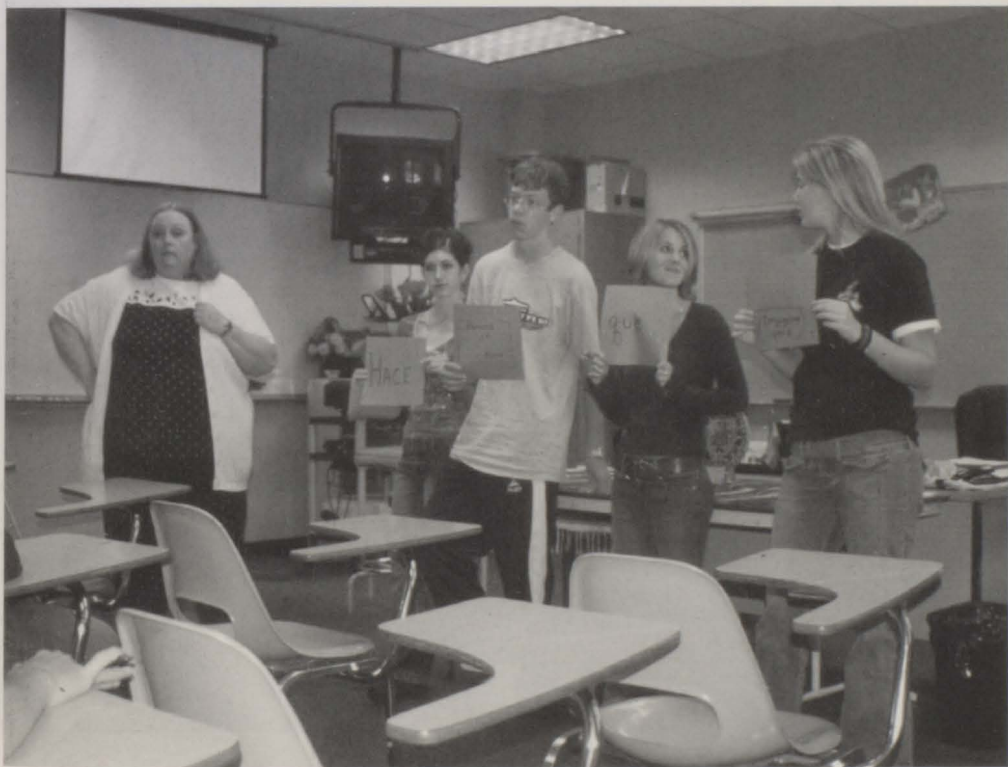

Viva El Espanol!

Gimme some more! Students serve a variety of Spanish food they prepared. They sampled appetizers traditionally served in Spanish-speaking countries.

Livin' la vida loca! Taylor Abernathy drinks a non-alcoholic margarita during Spanish Food Day. Each of the Spanish classes had a party to sample Spanish cuisines.

It's been...? A group of Spanish students demonstrate time constructions. Class activities were quick yet fun ways to learn the new language.

Life in Colombia. Mr. Vela tells about his life growing up in Colombia. Students looked forward to special speakers because it was like a vacation from work.

It's a Cuban! Brayden Ware is in disguise as Fidel Castro. Dress-up day provided a unique outlook on Spanish education.

Calculating Our Future

*Gettin' it done...*Students focus and pay attention while finishing their assignment. Good study habits paid off for several of them.

How do you do it again? Alana Dy turns to Mrs. Lockhart for some guidance. Students often had to go to teachers for some extra help.

Fun and games? Wesley Moulton and Brandon Mahoney pass time playing games on their calculators. Many students spent their free time in class like this.

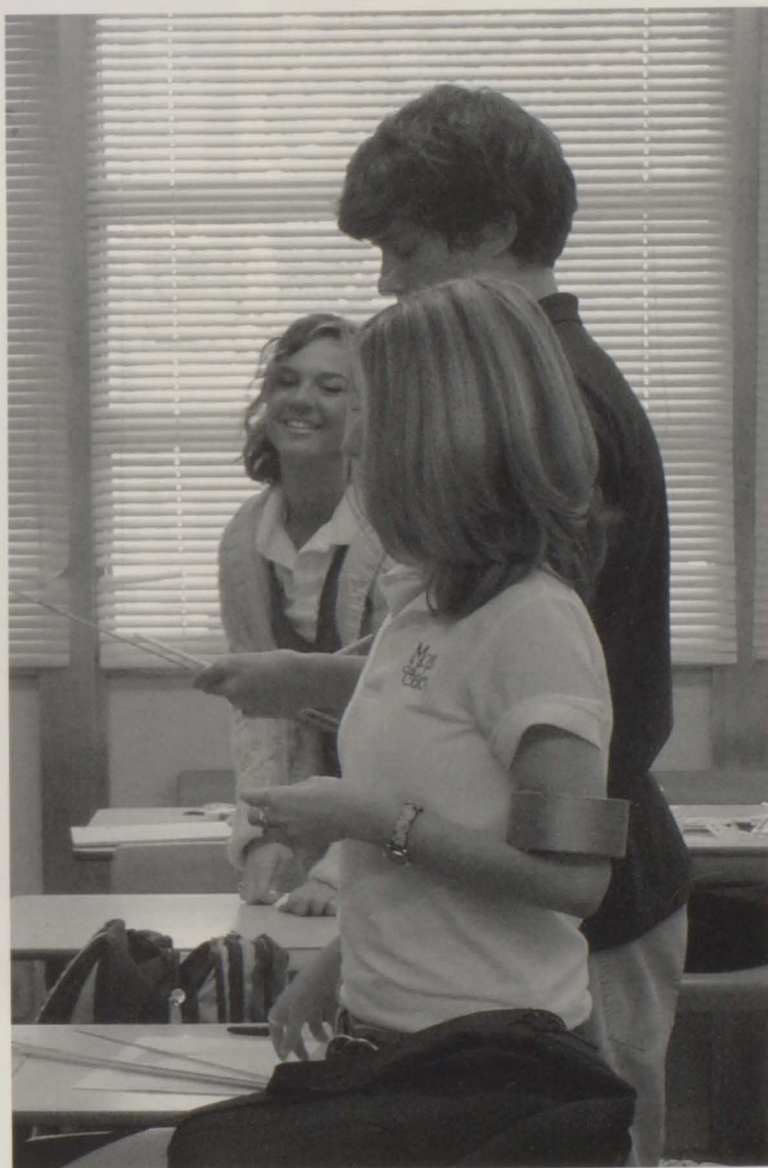

*Hard at work....*Students use their time wisely to finish a math assignment. Free time in class gave students a chance to finish their homework during school.

*A little bit of teamwork...*Corinne Booth, Richard Klingelhofer, and Heather Smith get a hands-on experience. Many students enjoyed working on math projects.

*Doin' it well...*One math class takes time from notes to work on its class project. Times like these were appreciated by the students.

ART

Busy at work.... Brandon Harris works hard on his art project during class. Hard work was always recognized when the project was finished.

Go over those notes... Delwyn Andrews goes over a painting during art class. Art helped students appreciate creativity during school hours.

She's on a mission... Mrs. Mead carries a ladder to class to do who-knows-what kind of project. The art classes were always doing something new and exciting.

Fix it up right... Daniel Harris looks at his sculpture. Effort was shown in all aspects of the class.

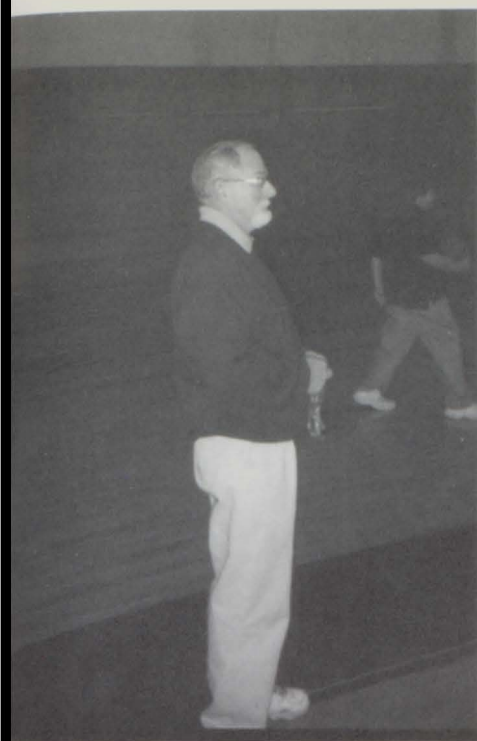

Get to work! Tony Upchurch couldn't look any more excited in his art class. After working on a project students often became frustrated.

Don't think too hard... Heather Smith takes time to decide what's next with her creative art work. Art was something that took a lot more thinking than what some students thought.

Watching the action... Coach Howe makes sure that the middle schoolers are safe in all their activities. Teacher supervision was a must for the PE classes.

PE

Give me that ball! David Garofalo tries to take the ball away from Coach Washington. Game strategies were always put into play during PE classes.

I can do it too! The hard-working boys try to master the art of dancing while playing basketball at the same time. Such multi-tasking was a must-have for PE classes.

Watch out! A group of freshman watch the exciting basketball game. Physical Education was always an exciting class for everyone involved.

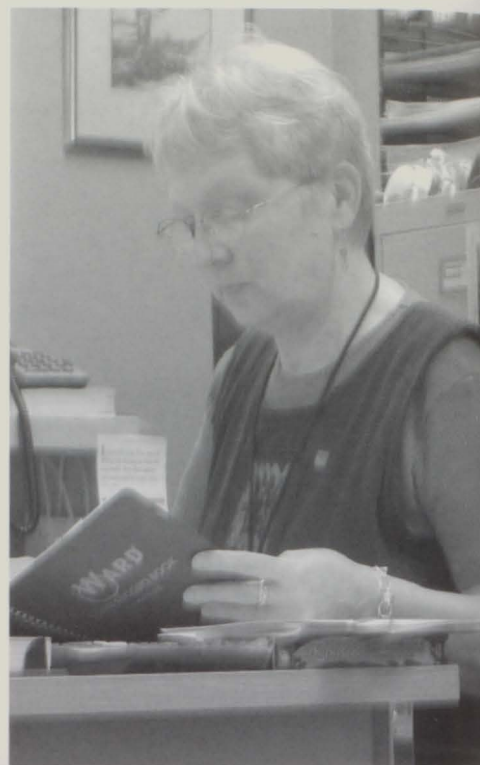

Knock 'em out! A group of students play a competitive game of 'Knock Out'. The game was a fast-paced, spirited way to spend the PE period.

Taking a break... Two middle schoolers grab a soda before heading back to the gym. Working hard often made the students thirsty.

Religion

Recording grades. Ms. Kirksey is recording grades so that she can submit them on time. Teachers should record their grades daily so it is not as stressful on them when it comes time to send out report cards.

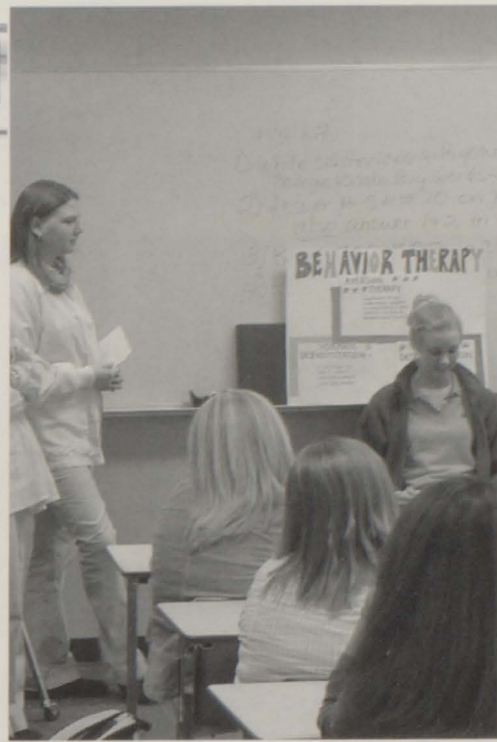

Listen up! Anna Bernal presents her religion project to the class. Students can pull up their grades with fun and easy projects.

Psychology

Oh Behave! Mallory Jones and Leslie Turner act out a behavioral system for the class. Projects and group efforts were made to understand why people act the way they do.

Family Photo... Ashley Leonard and Katherine Mann pose for a picture with their baby. The sack of flower was used all week to teach students lessons in responsibility.

CLUBS

Drama/Troubadors

Shh, its starting... Nicola Rossi and Colleen Hickey perform in the one-act play. Actors loved performing for the school and other guests.

I remember... Kurt Neisser stars in the "White Room of My Remembering." Troubadors put in hours of practice, and it paid off during the show.

How do I do this? A PALS member helps someone else with her homework. PALS club took pride in helping others.

PALS

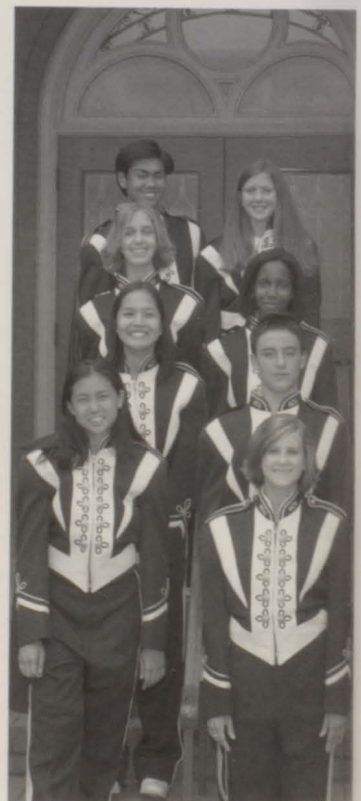

THE BAND

The Band and Flag Team

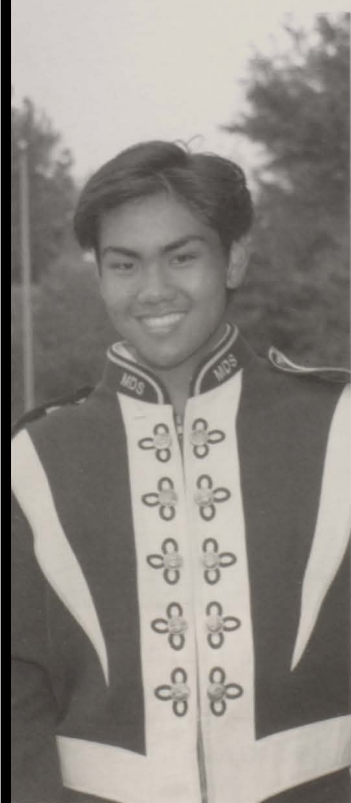

Up and coming... The middle schoolers make up a large portion of the Cavalier band. Participation from each grade was necessary for a great sound.

The sound of music... The upper-classmen look spiffy in their band uniforms as they pose for a picture. The wind instrumental group worked as one body for the season.

We've got the beat... The musicians are an important part of the school's pep rallies and football games. Band proved to be an excellent way to show their creativity.

Some Cavalier spirit... Norman Gonzales poses for being the first chair in the state competition. Norman is one of the best flute players the school has to offer.

Smile wide... The percussion section sticks together for a group picture. Drums added a good foundation for a hard song.

Hard at Work! Katie Boston proofreads her page before preparing to submit it. The time spent reviewing pages resulted in many great pages.

Dont take it too serious... Amanda Ritter stresses out over her yearbook page. Some students took on a great responsibility in the making of the yearbook.

All caught up... Ashley Leonard carefully crops a picture for one of her pages. Patience was often needed in the production of the year book.

The thinkers... Sara Spinetto and Kenny Epps contemplate over what to do next. Working with others allowed many ideas to be exchanged, culminating in a great yearbook.

Pick a good one! Katie Garofalo carefully chooses pictures to scan for the yearbook. This was an important process in making sure there were good pictures for each page.

Don't think too hard! Ben Bollinger concentrates on the task at hand. Good effort was seen throughout the completion of all the pages produced.

Be original! Jacob Adams and his fellow yearbook classmates look through old yearbooks. Looking at previous yearbooks always gave inspiration for new ideas!

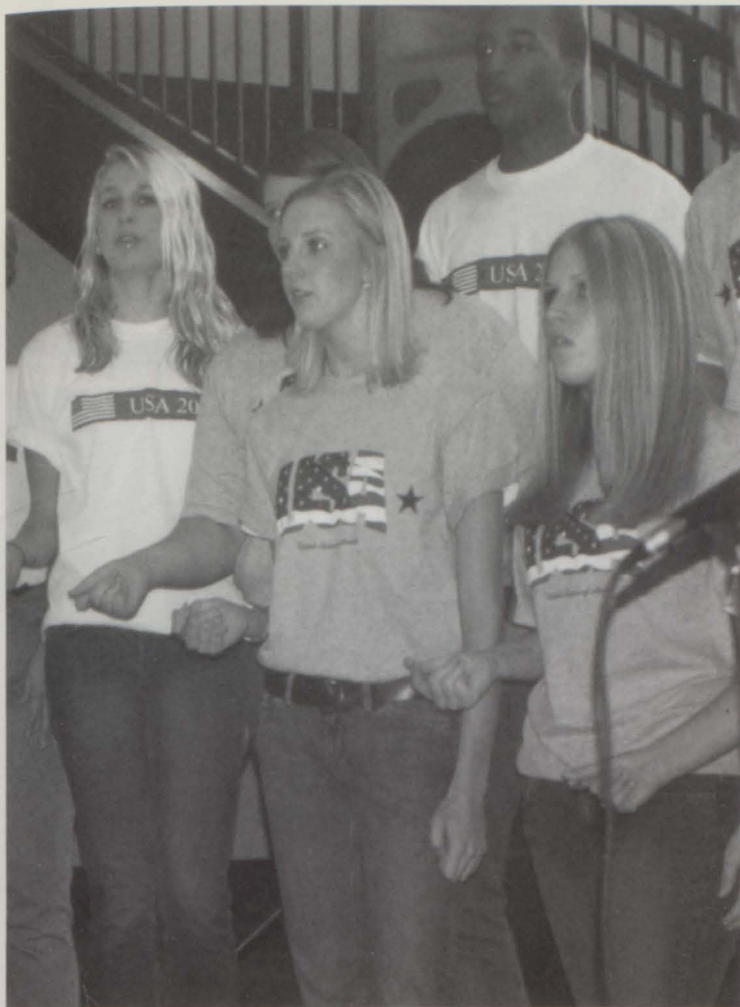

MUSIC TO YOUR EARS

Get Low! Mr. Mac, Tony Pierce, Todd Freeman, and Robert Slocum love participating in special events like the Christmas assembly. This was a memorable sight for everyone.

Stay in tune. The girls in the chorus always impress the audience with their beautiful voices. The chorus worked extremely hard to put on special events and performances.

Thanks! The chorus ensemble was happy to perform at the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame on Veteran's Day. This was a great way to show our appreciation to the veterans.

Music to your ears. Eleni Dermatas, Burney Pollock, and Caroline Freliche follow Mrs. Washburn's lead. These girls took chorus practice seriously.

Mic Check 1-2-3. Winslow Rumph prepares to perform along with the chorus ensemble. The Chorus ensemble received numerous awards for their high achievement and hard work.

Ding! The hand bells offer a different yet exciting twist to the chorus. The hand bell ringers performed for the student body at the Christmas assembly.

Louder! Mrs. Washburn directs the chorus as she plays the keyboard. Practice was vital and improved the skills of the chorus members.

Think hard. Olivia Bushy thinks of her next move on the chess board. Chess is a great thinking game.

Kings, Knights and Rooks.
The members of the chess club have fun at a meeting. Clubs are a fun way to enjoy school.

Greek Club

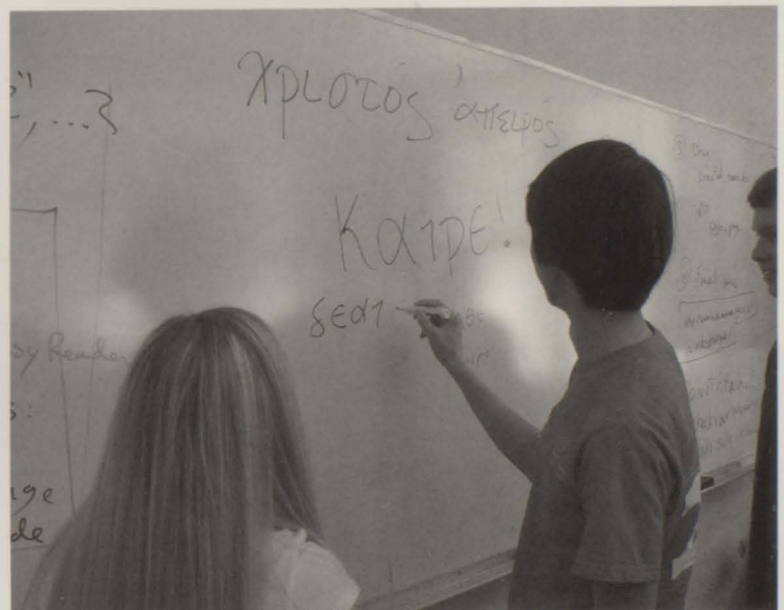

From Left: Jeremy Pohl, Gray Chapman, Eric Miltner, Zack Irwin.

Alpha, Beta, Kappa, Gamma Senior Jeremy Pohl practices writing Greek on the board. They had to study very hard to learn the Greek language.

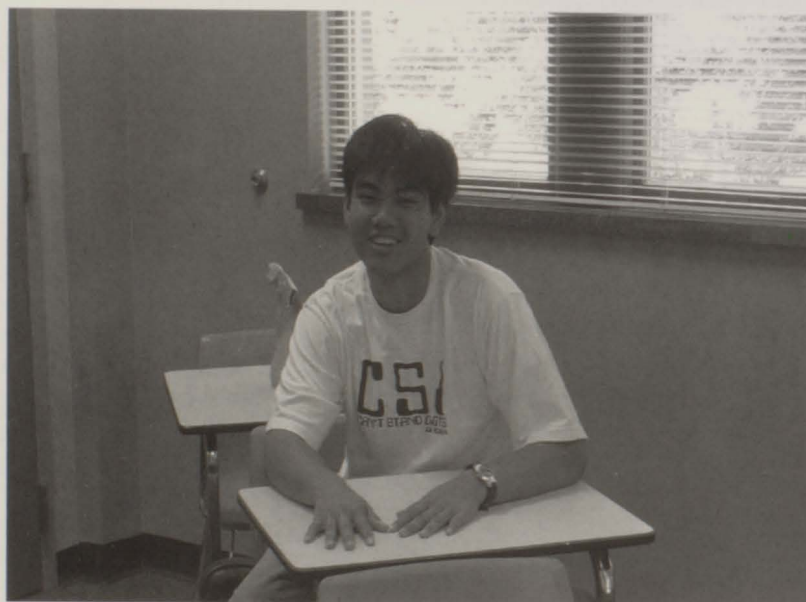

Jumpin' Gyros

Gray Chapman spells Greek words that Mr. Downs calls out. Mr. Downs devoted many hours to teaching Greek.

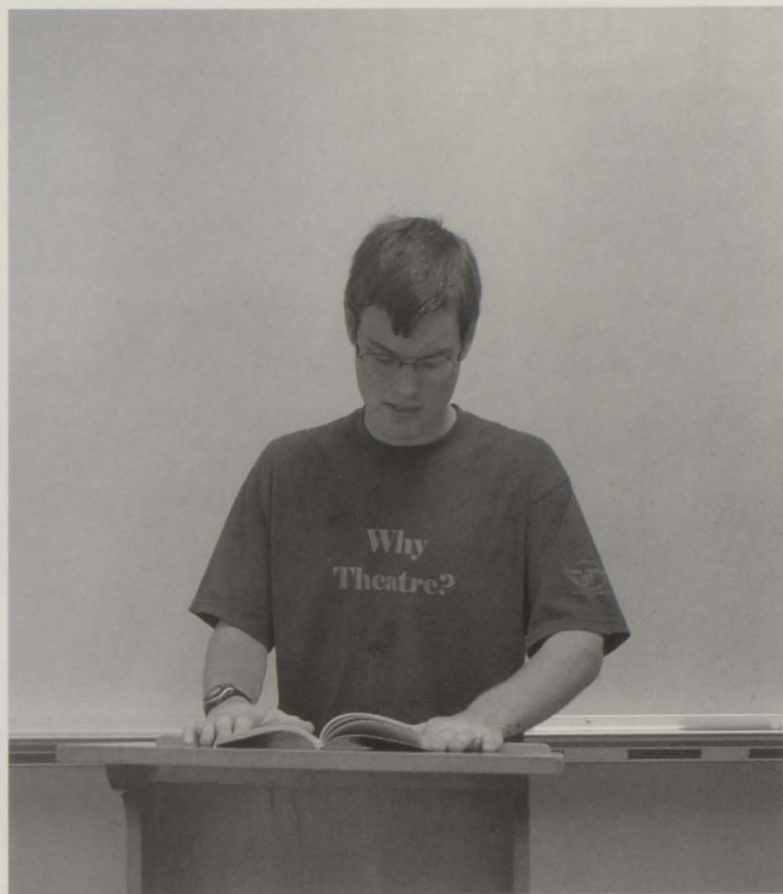

LITERARY COMPETITION

So Far There Aren't Any Mistakes.... Norman Gonzales corrects some of his teammates for the literary competition. The speeches really improved after the students gave their inputs.

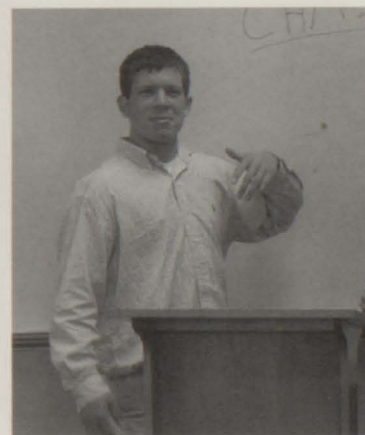

Listen Up... Kurt Niesser prepares for the literary competition by practicing his speech in front of people. Students should be well prepared on this day.

How Does This Sound? Chelsea Bunn reveals the speech she has planned to use at the literary competition. It is good for them to get other students' opinions.

What's Wrong? Jesse Pilkenton asks the class what was wrong with his speech. Students are able to use constructive criticism to help each other.

Varsity Cheerleading

Take Charge! Laura Stembridge shows key leadership skills as she directs the cheerleading squad.

Time Flies...Laura Stenbridge, Danielle Grinstead, and Candice Dupree have put forth years of dedication and hard work to their squad. These senior cheerleaders will miss cheering for their team after they are graduated.

Three of a kind...Junior cheerleaders Jamie Powers, Christine Lopapa, and Mary Montgomery pose for the camera. Girls often found time to bond.

Football Fanatics...Chloe Spicer and Shannon Heenan sport our team's football jerseys for a pep rally to show their spirit. Girls often show their support and loyalty to the athletic teams by doing fun stuff.

Finishing the Race...

Lil Engine that could...

Ryland Rumph pushes himself to finish the race. His hard work was rewarded with a good season.

Taking a break... Anna Bernal waits for her event to begin. These breaks were needed in between competitions to replenish energy.

Neck and neck... Daniel Bernal strives to blow by his opponent. The runner's good attitudes proved to be an asset to the team.

Push it to the limit! Senior Simon Radomski races towards the finish line. A good time was what the runners hoped to end with.

What a pitch! Lacey Foster hopes for a strike as she pitches the ball. Getting opposing players out was one satisfying aspect of the game.

It's a Hit!!!

Watch it fly! Kim Roberts looks on in amazement at the ball she just hit. Strong batters were vital to the team's offense.

Three strikes you're out!!! Brittany Hinson makes a great play as she throws the ball to her team mate. Team cooperation was important to the team's success.

Here it comes... Michal Evans pitches the ball to the other team. A strong first pitch was a good way to begin the game.

Varsity Softball

Out!! Lacy Foster saves her team by getting a girl out as she tries to slide home. The team started off slow but ended as a winning team.

Take me out to the ballpark, take me out to the game, buy me some peanuts and cracker jacks... Lexi Stokes prepares to hit the ball. She had a great season at the plate.

Getting Started... Kaitlyn Westfall warms up before another game. The team was very well prepared to face the opposition.

If they don't win its a shame... Lacey Foster comes out of her motion to deliver a good pitch. The team had a good pitching rotation.

I don't care if I ever come back, so its root, root, root for the home team. Kristen Anglea takes some infield before the inning starts. Warming up before the game starts is a necessity.

So its 1, 2, 3 strikes you're out at the old ball game!!! Hayley Durr holds back on a bad pitch. Starting as lead off batter, she had to keep her eye on the ball.

Give me that ball! Justin Young fights for the ball during a game. The team was known for never giving up on a play.

That's in. Senior Andrew Durr knows his shot is in as soon as he lets it go. He gained much confidence in his shot as the year went along.

Give it up. Senior Erik Hardison calls for the ball after he beat his defender. The teams unselfishness helped to their great success.

You got sauced! The SWAT team goes wild as Brandon Mahoney leads them in a chant. They were as involved in the game as the team was.

Bottom. Sophomore Josh Miller knocks down a three during a key game. The sophomores helped the team out a great deal this year.

Good one. Seniors Kenny Epps and Erik Hardison laugh as Andrew Durr tells them a joke. The guys knew when they could joke and when they had to get serious.

Let's go boys! Charles Hampton tries to pump the boys up before another game. The SWAT team was a tremendous help to the team.

Too easy. Senior Carl Puckett easily lays the ball in against FPD. Carl caused many coaches to have long nights trying to figure out how to guard him.

You can't hold him! Senior Kenny Epps knocks down a shot while being fouled by an opposing player. He helped the team a lot in his final year.

Squad up! Yea. The guys get pumped up before they go out to win another game. They had many pre-game rituals to prepare themselves.

Nothin' But Net

Shoot it! Kara Williams shoots a three-pointer from the baseline. Kara was one of the top three-point shooters in the region this year.

This is my ball! Lindsey Williams fights FPD's Ashley Griffin for the ball. Getting on the floor and being aggressive was key for winning games.

Take it to the hoop! Junior Cari Quillian takes on CFCA's B.J. Harville. The girls' inside game was crucial this year.

You can't handle me! Senior Joanna Akin makes her move past FPD's Megan DelaRosa. The team relied on Joanna's post strength.

In Your Face! Senior Sara Spinetto takes on CFCA's B.J. Harville to try to score a layup. Each player's technique was unique but effective.

Let's go Cavaliers! Coach Jim Massey gives the team a pep talk during a time-out. These vibrant discussions kept the team morale high.

Mad skills! Gina Tamboli drives into the lane to get off a jump shot. Her ball handling skills and quickness were important to the team.

Get tough! Senior Meaghan Slonaker works hard on defense. Meaghan's defensive quickness shut down many opponents' key players this season.

Be aggressive! Junior Cari Quillian fights for possession of the ball. Passion for the game was one of the team's high points this year.

Defense! Coach Jim Massey instructs the girls into a defense. The intensity of the team's defense kept them in several games this season.

Squad Up

Too Easy. Patrick Slonaker easily knocks down a short jumpshot for the Cavs. The sophomores provided much needed leadership this year.

Good Job! Coach Freeman congratulates the team after another victory. His words of encouragement helped the guys tremendously this year.

Ahhh! Brandon Jolley yells as he goes for a layup over an opposing player. B.J. was an intimidating force for the team.

Cleaning the boards. Justin Andrews shows off his athleticism while pulling down a rebound. Hard plays help the team to a successful season.

Score two more. Maggie O'Brien drives to the hole between two defenders. Her confidence helped the team out a great deal as the year proceeded.

Burning the Net

I got it. Tori Akin rips down a rebound from the other team. The height and experience was a big part of the girls' success.

Count It. Maria Phelps knocks down a shot while getting fouled. The team worked hard and never gave up on their way to a 7-2 record.

1.2.3.Win! Coach Slocum gives the girls a pep talk on their way to another win. Coach gave them great encouragement all year.

Diving into Victory

Setting the pace... Eric Roberts is seen receiving his first place award while also setting the state record in his individual event. Practice was something that all the swimmers saw pay off.

Show your colors... Corinne Booth shows off her school spirit before the state meet. The team was always trying to find ways to support their teammates.

Congratulations! Tony Chen receives one of his first place medals. There were many MDS students seen on the podium before the day was up.

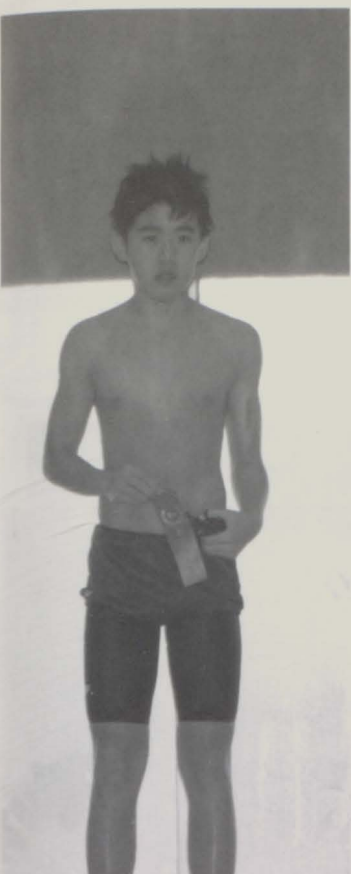

And the winners are... The two teams wait patiently to be awarded their trophies. This has become a tradition for the MDS teams with their consecutive wins.

Just hanging out.... A handful of members get together before the big state meet. There are always times to be serious and times to have fun.

Zoning out... Bethany Dadisman takes a break between races to calm down and focus on her next event. Concentration was a main point of the sport.

Take a breath... Jimmy Cassidy gasps for a breath during his breaststroke event. The team always gave it their best all the way down to their last breath.

Look Mom!! Eric Roberts, Jimmy Cassidy, and Adam Romine pose for a quick picture. There was always time for fun on the team.

TENNIS

Hoop De Hoop... Senior Ben Bollinger puts a beating on the FPD Vikings during the state playoffs this year. Ben went on to place 2nd. Way to Go Cavs!

I must be Butter cause I'm on a Roll... Senior Courtney Crosby fires back after a quick serve from her fellow team mate. Practice was a valuable part which led to the Cavs' success.

Girls Varsity (l-r) Coach Patty Kallay, Kara Williams, Laney Bateman, Christine Relton, Lacey Young, Courtney Crosby, Lauren Allen, Chloe Spicer, Caty Stallings, Laura Stembridge, Kelly Kiefer.

GOLF

Putt Putt... Sam McLaurin prepares to putt for birdie. Fine attention to detail resulted in many great wins for the Mount deSales golf team.

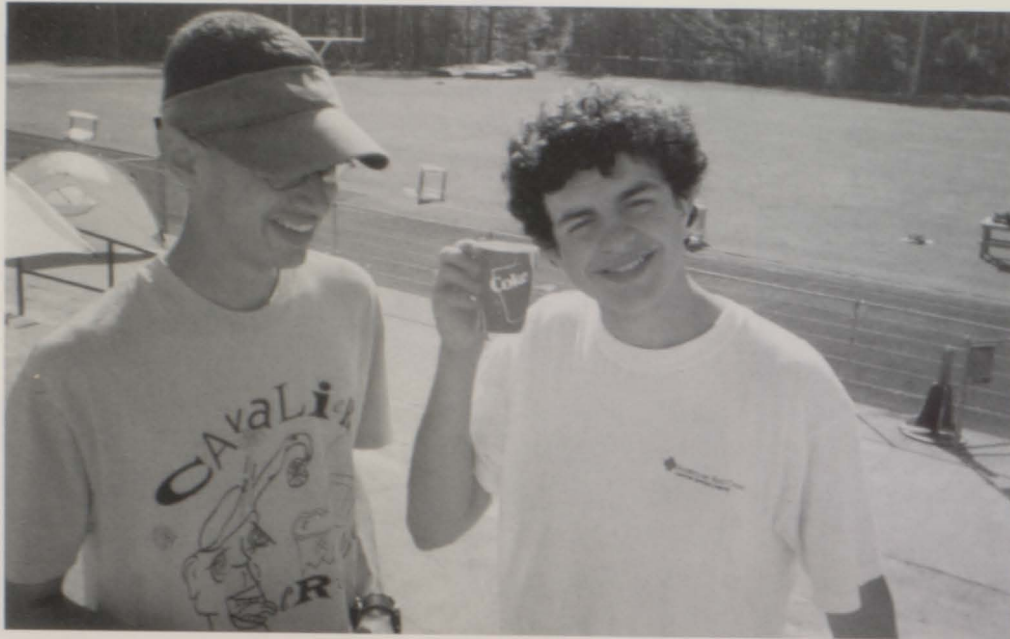

Chirp Chirp... Patrick Hanson chips for eagle. The efforts of all the players resulted in consistently good performances.

(l-r) Coach Randy Davis, Thomas Davis, Luke Graycheck, Anthony Rosa, Jay Gibson, Kevin Sheehan, Ryland Rumph, Sam McLaurin, Patrick Hanson, Colby Story

Track

Hop To It!!!

William Rather does the long jump during a meet against Tattnall, FPD, and Stratford. It looks like William had a lot of practise.

Loungin' Around...

Nelson Quintanilla and Josh Rowland goof off while waiting for their next event. The team had a good time in between and during the meets.

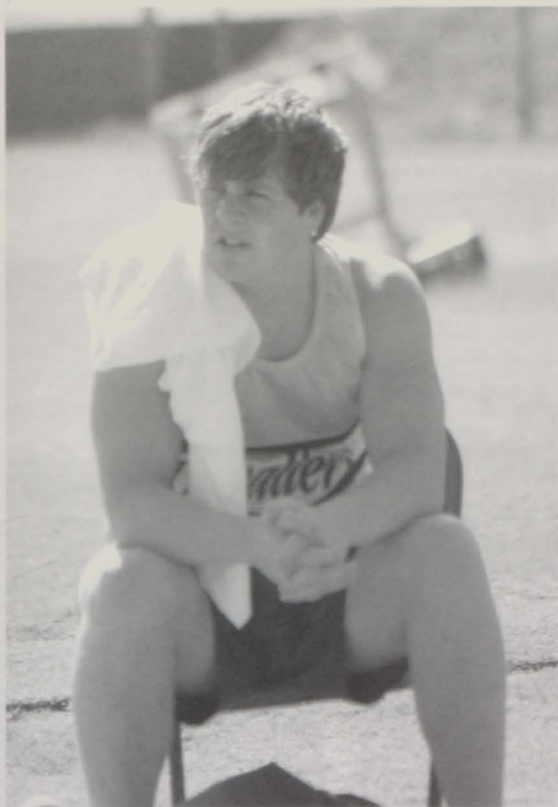

Stick It To Um'!!!

Pole vaulter Matt Scroggins eagerly awaits for the ref to blow the whistle so he can go. The team also had two state qualifiers: Chase Henderson and Matt Scroggins.

Getting Physical!!!

Blake Mears stretches his arm and leg muscles before his event. Stretching was very important so as not to pull a muscle.

Day Dreaming...

Jeremy Watruba looks on as he takes a break from the heat and cheers his team mates on. The track team had a large number of runners qualify for the state track meet.

Putting The Shot...

The track member performs in the shot put event. It took a lot of upper body strength to do this.

Time Is Precious!!!

Anna Bernal uses her free time to rest after a hard event. Anna was also a part of the cross country team.

Brotherly Love!!!

Blake Mears congratulates Eric Otterer on his way to take a seat after completing his run. The track team had a good time at the meets and enjoyed helping each other get through the mental toughness of running.

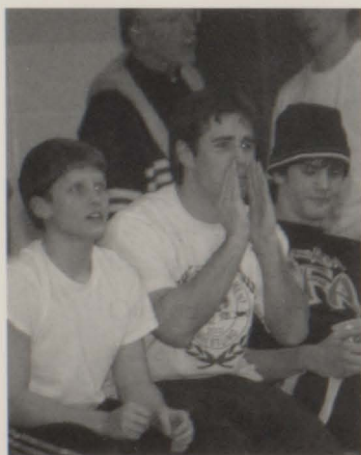

Wrestling

Ready, Set, Match!!
Willis Kallay uses the techniques he learned at practice. Willis Kallay perfected many of these techniques.

It Takes Two To Tango!!
Blake Mears wrestles with a student from Southland. Blake set many MDS school records.

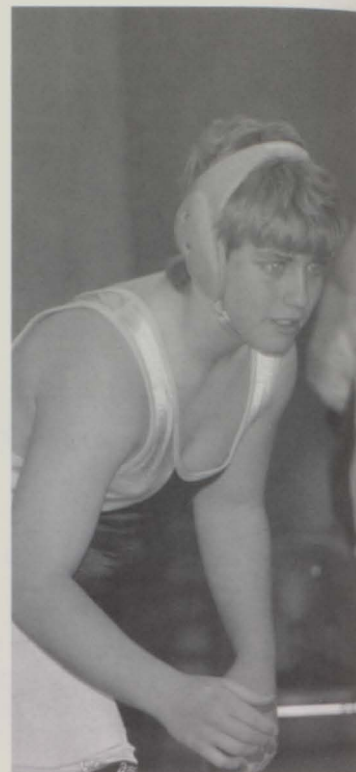

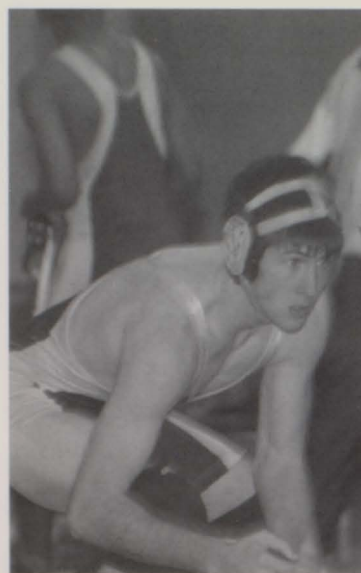

1,2,3... He's Pinned...
Micah Miller puts his opponent in a headlock. Micah was an accomplished wrestler from the junior class.

Go Team Go!!!
Zack Zanghi cheers on a teammate during a match. It was uplifting to receive such encouragement.

Win the Match! !!
Chase Henderson gets ready to make a move on his opponent. The wrestling team put 110% in everything they did.

Fast As Lightning!!!

Sam Reese throws the ball to another player. These boys were always quick on the draw!!

B and C Team Baseball

We're # 1!!!!

The B Team huddles together before their game. It wasn't hard to get these guys rowdy!!!

Smooth Criminal!!!

This MDS athlete makes a run for it and steals a base. The other team just wasn't as quick!!

Keep Your Eye On The Ball!

This MDS athlete shows the pitcher who's boss. We were excited to see all those homeruns!

Run Like The Wind!!!

An MDS baseball player finishes the diamond by running to home plate. We enjoyed all the excitement!!

A Hard Days Work!!!

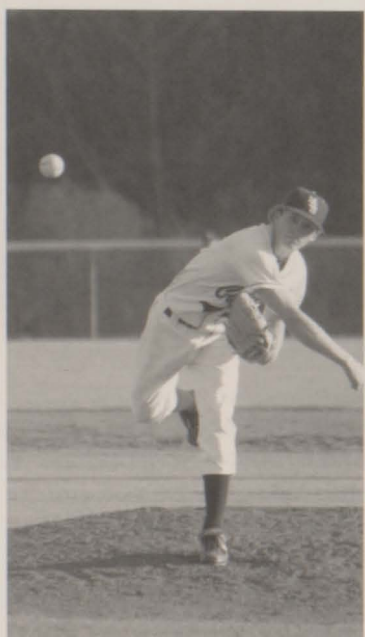

Coach Chester Pierce directs a few players running bases. Because of him, the MDS B and C team baseball was truly amazing!!! Mr. Pierce also doubles as the school punisher. How does he do it all? A long day of yelling at students and handing out detentions and then an afternoon of coaching baseball...it's absolutely unbelievable!! What a bold and heroic leader we have at MDS!!!

Take it Yard

Are you serious? Coach Kemp questions a strike call made by the umpire. The coaches made sure the umps didn't make too many bad calls without hearing about it.

All smiles! Coach Yarnall is happy with the way the team is playing. The coaches gave the players encouragement throughout the season.

Bringin' the heat. Senior Eric Roberts delivers a pitch to the opposing team. Eric was one of the premier pitchers in the GISA this season.

Home Run! Junior Luke Mummert drives a ball over the center field fence. The team worked hard in the off-season to get their strength up for the season.

What are you looking at? Senior Carl Puckett takes a break from the game to pose for a picture. The players tried to have fun when the time was right.

He's Safe! Senior Carl Puckett slides safely back in first base. The seniors showed great leadership through the hard work they displayed.

Double Play! Senior Nathan Masters throws a runner out at first base. The team's defense was outstanding throughout the season.

Focused. Senior Eric Roberts patiently waits for his next opportunity to get back on the field. The love for the game helped drive the team to the playoffs.

Too Easy. Junior Brandon Mahoney easily trots across home plate. Brandon put in a lot of hard work this year to make himself a better player.

Ready to Run. Senior Andrew Durr contemplates whether to steal second base. Players took their chances when a run was needed.

In Loving Memory Of Zachary Richard Bozman

February 5, 1987

August 25, 2001

Cheeseheads! Zach was a huge lover of cheese as well as having fun. He always had a smile on his face and something funny to say. Zach was always at peace with everyone, and we miss him very much.

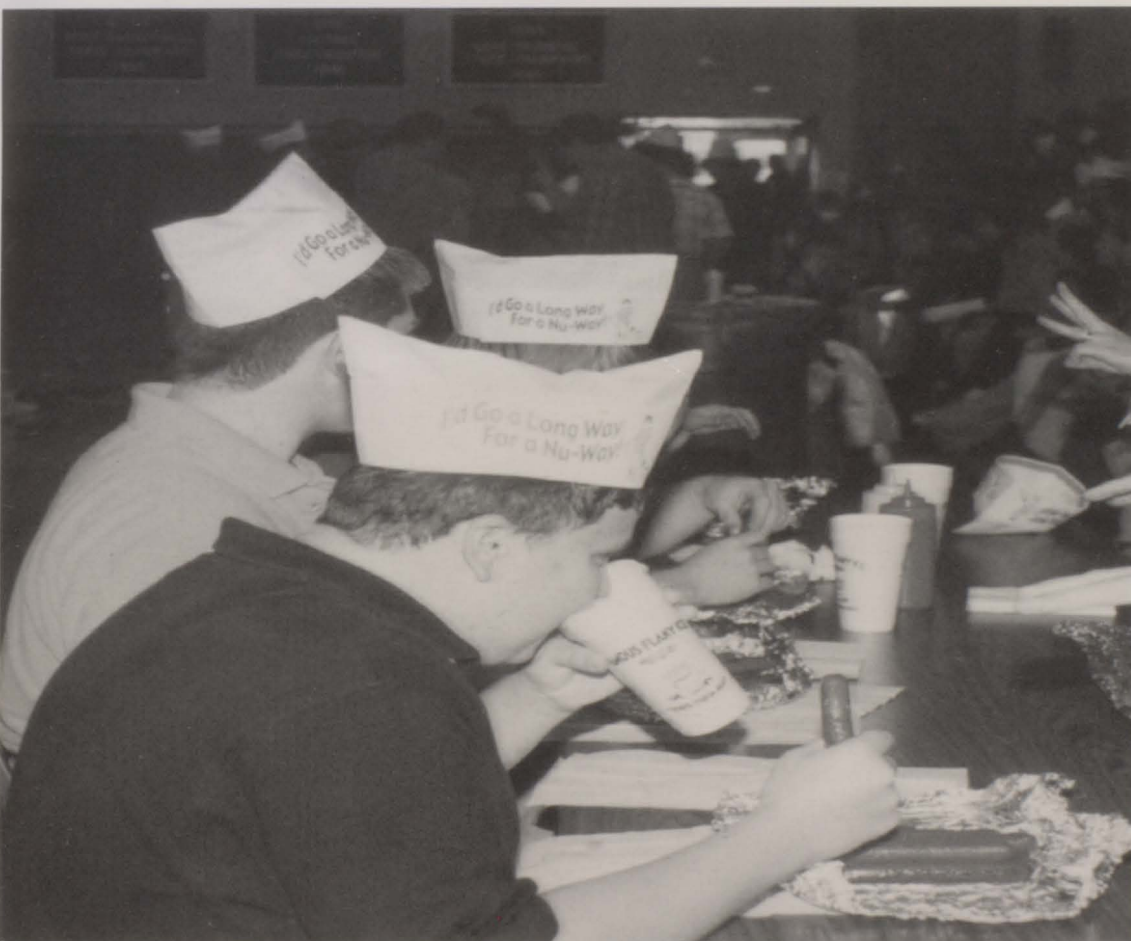

Peace, man! Zach liked dressing up for Halloween. Without modern medical advances, we might not have been able to enjoy Zach's presence or learn the lessons he taught us.

Off To The Races...
Gaining on his competition, senior David Bushey demolishes the hotdogs.

Glory! Glory!...
Stuart Ogilvie reigns above all, holding the record of eating 13 hotdogs in 3 minutes.

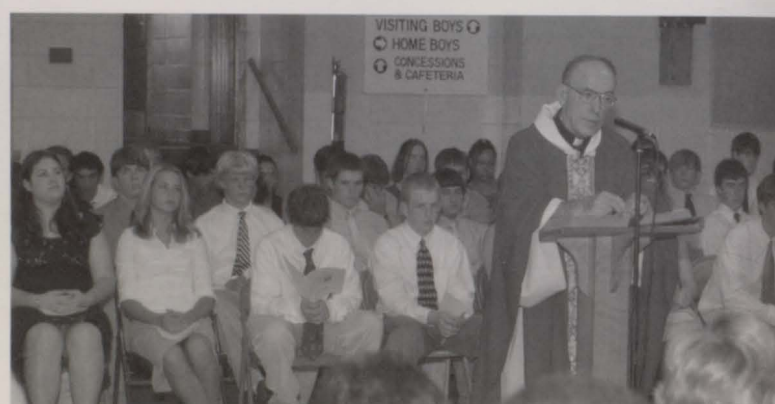

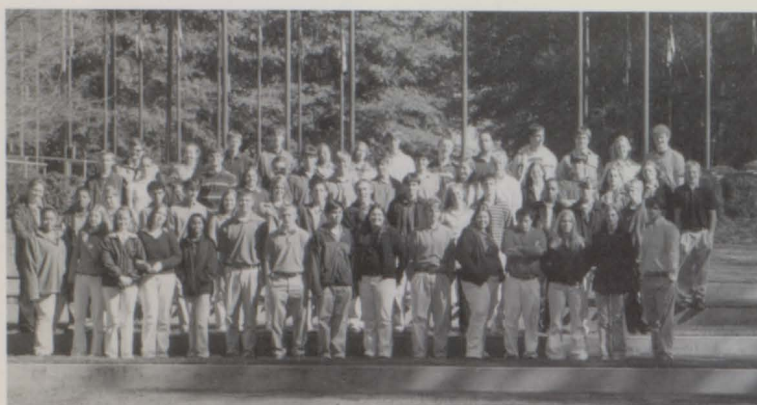

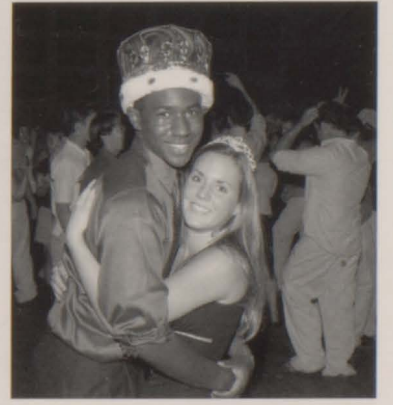

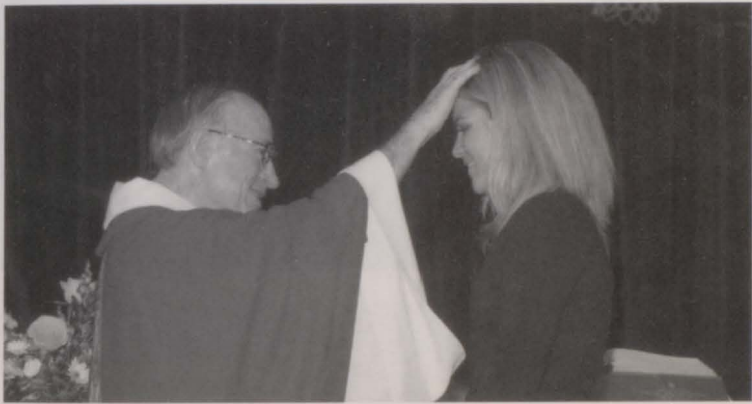

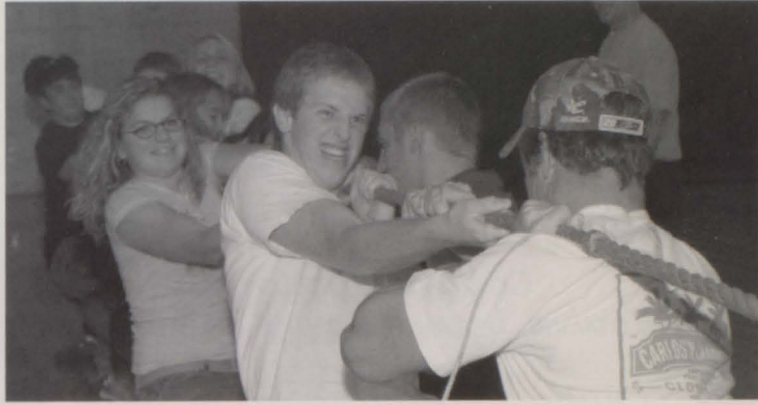

Can't eat just one...
Joshua Schaveland takes a sip of water before he goes on to increase his numbers.

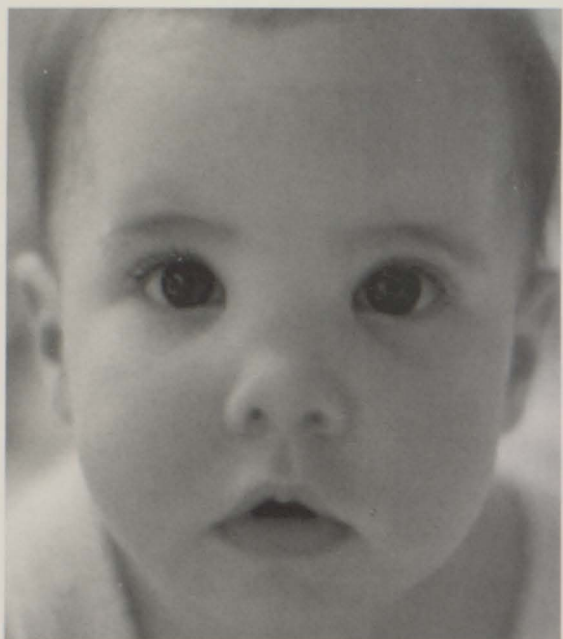

The Results Are In...
Mr. Midkiff announces the hot dog eating champions of the 2003-2004 contest.

Don't ever forget that you are unique,
 Be your best self
 and not an imitation of someone else.
 Find your strengths
 and use them in a positive way.
 Don't listen to those
 Who ridicule the choices you make.
 Travel the road you have chosen
 And don't look back with regret..
 You will learn something valuable
 From every trip you take,
 So don't be afraid to make mistakes.
 Tell yourself that you're okay
 Just the way you are.
 Make friends who respect your true self.
 Take the time to be alone, too.
 So you can know just how terrific
 Your own company can be.
 Please don't ever forget that you are special
 And very much loved.

Jessica Ann Nystrom, your entire family is very proud of you. In 2002, a car accident took you to a very dark place. Through God's grace, and many people's prayers, you were able to make it back to us. We all believe God has a very special purpose for your future. We all have faith that you will fulfill it. We all love you very much! Fly with confidence. Sparrow of Rainbows!

Erik, The word that best describes what you have contributed to our lives is happiness! You were the funniest of toddlers filling our days with never ending hugs and happiness. As you have grown and matured those smiles have grown bigger and the happiness has turned to pure joy! E, you are such a strong athlete, student, and leader; but your greatest strength is your character. You have shown kindness to those many choose to ignore, you have stood steady in your beliefs while others may have waived and you have loved your family in a way that would warm the coldest of hearts. You have represented yourself, your school, your community, your family, and your God in an honorable way and we are so proud of you. You have accomplished much, but there is so much more ahead of you. Continue to enjoy life in the way you always have with God as your guide, a smile on your face, and a heart filled with love!

Our Dearest Christine

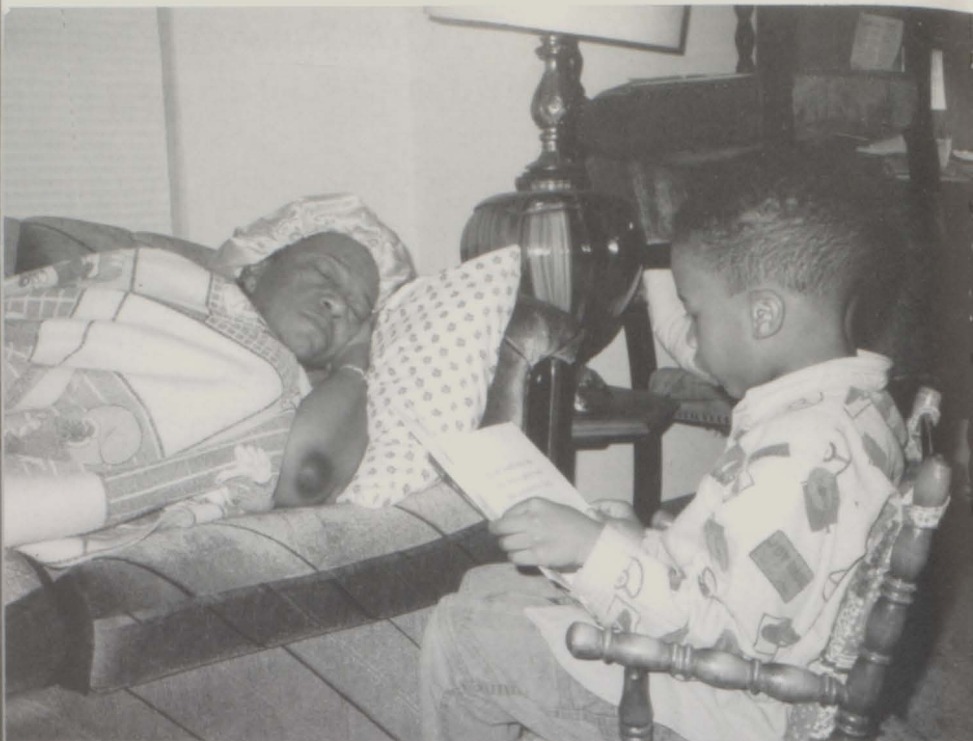

We thank God for the precious baby He gave us 17 years ago—a unique one of a kind gift. We've seen your growth each year and marveled at God's doing as He fashions you into the lovely young lady you are now. As He continues the process of shaping and molding you, our earnest prayer is that you will "trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him and He will direct your path." Wishing you God's best always.

We love you.

Holiday News

With the Fondal Family
Winter, 2001

Fondal's Good Stress

As you all may have heard, the three things that can stress a person out the most are a new job, moving into a new home, and a new baby. Aaron was almost three months old last Christmas, so we had pretty much gotten over the stress that a new baby brings. We needed a new stress, so, we decided to move into our new home. I think we were actually moving on Christmas Eve last year. We have really enjoyed this last year in our home. We are slowly decorating and adding new pieces. I do mean slowly. It took me until March to clear out the garage of all the things we had in storage. We look forward to our family and friends visiting whenever possible.

The stars that twinkled in Bethlehem's sky still shine for us above and the child that was born in Bethlehem's arms.....is still God's gift of love.

A Day To Remember September 11, 2001

September 11 will be a day that will be etched in our memory forever. The unseemly events, we know, captured your attention as it did ours. Let us keep those that lost loved ones in those tragic events in our prayers this Holiday Season. We were fortunate not to have lost any immediate family or friends. But, we have all been affected by these events. America is now a different place for all of us. So let our prayers go up for all those men and women who defend our freedoms.

Parent Trap

Maria and I have been keeping our sanity. The boys keep us busy, but I guess they are keeping us from getting old to soon. Aaron smiles and gets anything he wants, Trey demands everything he wants, and Stephen just wants all the charged up phones in the house. Maria is still splitting her time between two offices. I am still spending most of my time with STARBASE and the rest with Georgia Military College. In between, we have music lessons, PTA, and business meetings. Somehow we manage to get rest and vacation in there. We are attempting our bi-annual Christmas trip to Disney World. Boy, aren't we brave. It has been a joy this year to see the boys grow. We wish everyone that we share this newsletter with, peace, joy and happiness during the Christmas Season and the coming New Year. We pray that the Lord bless and keep you and your family in the safest of places, in the arms of Jesus Christ.

Eric Goolsby

We are so proud of the young man you have become.

"I have one life and one chance to make it count for something...I'm free to choose what that something is, and the something I've chosen is my faith. Now, my faith goes beyond theology and religion and requires considerable work and effort.
